200 Pupils Boycott Schools In Sausalito For 'Freedom'

FREEDOM CLASSROOM — Edna Bogardus instructs second grade class in "freedom school" at Marin City's First Missionary Baptist Church, where some 200 pupils, including about 10 white children, attended today in protest against "de facto segregation" in Sausalito School District.

5 Per Cent Are White During One-Day Affair

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Approximately 200 pupils went to school in a Marin City church today in the name of freedom.

Of these about 190 were Negroes and 10 whites.

"Freedom schools" were organized last week in connection with today's boycott by Negro pupils of schools in the Sausalito School District. The boycott was set up by the Congress of Racial Equality, according to Douglas J. Quiett, chairman, to attempt to obtain an integration plan for the district.

Tomorrow, said Quiett, the children will return to their regular schools.

There were no incidents this morning, said Supt. Marcus F. Davis of the school district. "Teachers (in the regular schools) are going about their business as usual but, in some cases, the classes are small," he said.

Davis said there were 100 pupils in attendance at Manzanita School, where enrollment is 265. There were 223 at Richardson Bay, where enrollment is 402. However, absentees included illnesses, said Davis.

Central and Bayside Schools, which have a predominance of white students, had no significant absences at all, he added. Total attendance in the four schools is 1,040.

CALLED OFF

A similar boycott planned in the Oakland schools for today, tying in with yesterday's 10th anniversary of the Supreme Court school desegregation decision 10 years ago, was called off. (See related story, page 2.)

Quiett said CORE had not been approached by mediators to call off the Sausalito District boycott.

Children were enrolled in the "freedom schools" starting at 8 a.m. Following this, they filed into the grayish-green First Missionary Baptist Church at 501 Drake Avenue. Butcher paper was pasted over the long outside church windows and a movie stressing Negro freedom was shown.

Immediately afterward, seventh and eighth grade pupils left for a "freedom school" at Village Baptist Church, behind the community center.

While all were gathered in the First Missionary Baptist Church, John F. Gardenshire of San Rafael, chairman of CORE's education committee and a teacher in San Jose Intermediate School at Hamilton Air Force Base, asked the assembly, "Why are we here"

CHURCH PEWS

He later answered the question: "Because we want freedom. We want you to have a better education so you can make a better life for your children."

Classes were set up by grades in church pews. Mrs. Jacquie Milligan, a Berkeley teacher, took her pupils into the choir loft. A kindergarten, taught by Mrs. Cleo Harris of Kentfield, sat on the floor in a tiny hall at the end of the church.

Twenty-two second graders, one a Caucasian child, sat in the front pews of the church. Edna Bogardus of Mill Valley,

Defense Fails In Try To See Slaying Poll

Robert Lee Jones, 25, formally entered pleas of innocent in Marin Superior Court today to charges of murdering Donald G. Corbett of Sausalito and to armed robbery and grand theft.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. delayed setting of trial date for a week, pending application by Jones' defense attorneys for a writ by the California Supreme Court restraining Jones from being tried jointly with murder suspect John Lee King, 28.

JOINT TRIAL

However, Judge Sims indicated that at 9:30 a.m. next Monday, he intends to set joint murder trial for June 9, same date set last week for trial of King. A similar writ application by Thomas P. Boyd, San Rafael attorney for Jones, has already been denied by District Court of Appeals in San Francisco.

Judge Sims today granted Jones's defense access to a large amount of information held by the district attorney's office and earlier granted to King. This includes copies of statements made by the defendants prior to grand jury proceedings, photographs, criminal records and coroner's reports, and statements of witnesses testifying before the grand jury.

ALSO DENIED

Denied, as in the case of King, were names, addresses and statements of all intended prosecution witnesses.

A motion by Boyd that the district attorney's office be forced to disclose results of a poll taken in the past two weeks to determine if Marin County residents would be prejudiced as jurors in the murder trial was denied by Judge Sims.

The poll was taken over the past two weeks by approaching people on the streets.

Jones pleaded innocent to armed robbery and grand theft in the March 25 holdup of Sylvester Schladweiler at Harbor Liquor Store, Redwood Highway, Alto, and theft of over $200 worth of merchandise from Ralph C. Briggs of Tomahawk Lodge near Novato on March 11.

California Lodge Supporters Switch Over To Rockefeller

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Backers of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge today threw their support to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the Republican presidential nomination in the California June 2 primary.

Sen. Barry Goldwater and Rockefeller are the only Republicans on the California ballot.

The Lodge backers said they felt Rockefeller's slate "closely parallels the moderate Republican philosophy" of the Ambassador to Vietnam. They added, "we do not have the same conviction about the Goldwater slate."

It was emphasized that the Lodge backers threw the support to Rockefeller because they feel that his delegation to the San Francisco convention in July will "offer the most eventual support to Ambassador Lodge."

Jack W. Crumley, co-chairman of the California Draft Lodge for President Committee, made the announcement at a press conference, and said by backing Rockefeller "Lodge supporters will be increasing Ambassador Lodge's eventual delegate support at the national convention in San Francisco."

The step to support Rockefeller was taken, Crumley said, only after an extensive survey was made of Lodge supporters in California. Crumley explained that the committee did not want to impose its views on rank and file supporters who are all volunteers.

Paul Grindle, national campaign director for Lodge, said all key figures on the Lodge committee agreed that Rockefeller should be supported in the California primary.

These sentiments also were echoed by Maxwell M. Rabb, of New York, national chairman of the Lodge committee, who said, that he and the rest of the committee will continue to contest Rockefeller for delegates in other primaries throughout the nation.

Crumley, in making a formal statement on the support of Rockefeller, said, "In Oregon last Friday Ambassador Lodge received an impressive tribute. He polled 27 per cent of the vote although he is 5,000 miles away and has not been in the United States for six months.

"Ambassador Lodge finished second—well ahead of Sen. Goldwater and Richard Nixon, both of whom had full-fledged well-financed campaigns.

"If one can believe the polls, and they must be correct some of the time, Ambassador Lodge is in California the most respected contender for the Republican nomination," Crumley said.

JOHNSON REQUESTS MORE VIET MONEY

Calls For Increased Assistance To Both Military, Civilian Projects

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today for an extra 125 million dollars to help step up the war agaist communism in South Vietnam.

The money will go into increased support of both military and civil operations of the Vietnamese.

In a special message, Johnson spelled out the needs and the intentions. He said that "by our words and deeds to a decade of determined effort, we are pledged before the world to stand with the free people of Vietnam."

And he said two major changes have dictated the necessity for increasing financial help to Vietnam.

"First, the Viet Cong guerrillas, under orders from their Communist masters in the North, have intensified terrorist actions against the peaceful people of South Vietnam. This increased terrorist requires increased response.

"Second, a new government under Prime Minister Khanh has come to power, bringing new energy and leadership and new hope for effective action. I share with Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge the conviction that this new government can mount a successful campaign against the Communists."

Johnson told Congress he wants an extra 70 million dollars for economic help to the Vietnamese and 55 million dollare for military purposes.

In the latter field, he said, additional equipment, ammunition, training and supplies will be needed, including more aircraft, pilot training and air field improvements.

On the civil side, the President said, the additional funds will go into more fertilizer, medical supplies and services, repair parts and replacements for war-damaged railway rolling stock, school supplies and building materials, well-drilling equipment and teams to bring fresh water to the villagers, and enlarged advisory staffs in the provinces.

More Arrests Made After Dance Brawls

A fight was stopped at C's Drive-In and a pistol carrier arrested at Waldo Point in aftermaths Saturday of brawls at teen dances in Mill Valley and Hamilton Air Force Base.

Eight teen-agers, all from off the base, were arrested by air police at a United Crusade benefit dance in Hangar 3 at Hamilton, which drew some 2,000 young people from throughout the Bay Area.

Robert Scott MacMurray, 30, who lives on a houseboat at Gate 6, Waldo Point, was arrested by sheriff's deputies at the Sausalito Boat and Tackle Shop, where he produced a pistol and laid it on the counter. He reportedly told arresting officers he had armed himself in expectation of renewal of the brawl that erupted at a Mill Valley Teen Club dance Friday night at the Mill Valley American Legion Hall.

He was booked in the county jail on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

A fight between a white and a Negro youth was stopped by sheriff's deputies at 9:35 p.m. Saturday at C's Drive-In, 510

BY CAR AND FOOT

Father Spots, Collars Suspected Auto Thief

A San Rafael father caught a suspected car thief early today after a wild chase by car and afoot.

The car chase, at speeds up to 90 miles an hour, ranged from San Rafael to Greenbrae to Corte Madera and back to San Rafael.

When the chase was over, Alexander Buller, 29, of 565 Canal Street, San Rafael, was booked on a charge of car theft.

According to San Rafael police the episode went this way:

Homer C. Rose of 575 Canal Street, San Rafael, was driving at Harbor Street and Francisco Boulevard about 12:25 a.m. when he saw his son's car being driven off by someone.

He gaye pursuit, following the car to Greenbrae, Corte Madera, and back to San Rafael, blowing his horn to attract attention. After the car turned off Highway 101 at Belle Avenue, he managed to block it.

Buller took off on foot. Rose gave chase through several yards and over fences before catching Buller and subduing him after a fight.

Rose called to Margaria Webster of 1239 Irwin Street, who called police.

Buller, who suffered a severe knee cut requiring 50 stitches, and cuts on chin and left ear, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital and then booked at the county jail on a charge of car theft.

During the chase, Rose's son, Paul, 18, was at home and thought his car was parked in the carport.

Clear Weather Forecast After Sudden Storm

Clouds which covered Marin yesterday after Saturday's unexpected storm have been forecast to disappear tomorrow.

The sudden rains ended late Saturday after nearly a half-inch of rain was recorded in San Rafael. Other rainfall figures were San Anselmo, .36 of an inch; Phoenix Lake, .32; Lagunitas Lake, .25; Alpine Lake, .20; Kent and Bon Tempe Lakes and Larkspur, .16; Novato, .12; Point Reyes fire station, .10; Nicasio Lake, .06, and Tamalpais Valley, .02.

Total rainfall recorded in San Rafael this year is 20.32 inches, less than half the 46.99 total for the same period last year and far below the seasonal average of 35.80 inches.

The weatherman has predicted warmer temperatures for the San Francisco Bay Area tomorrow.

Laotian, Viet Reds Overrun Neutralist Post

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The command post of neutralist Gen. Kong Le on the eastern edge of the strategic Plaine des Jarres fell to the Communists today, Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma reported.

The neutralist prince told newsmen the situation was "still critical" at Muong Phanh, the village 100 miles northeast of Vientiane that Kong Le used as headquarters for his 7,000-man neutralist army.

Souvanna said pro-Communist Pathet Lao troops and North Vietnamese soldiers overran Kong Le's command post after two days of heavy shelling and bitter fighting. No estimate of casualties was available.

Military sources said Kong Le was in the general vicinity of Muong Phanh but had retreated southward to set up a new defense perimeter.

Few Schools Shut In Demonstrations Throughout Nation

Negro Baycotts In New York, Milwaukee; Teachers Strike

Combined UPI & AP

Most all American school-age children went to classes today, so that strikes and demonstrations were the exception rather than the rule at widely separated cities across the nation.

In Utah teachers prepared to strike for two days in pressing for more money. Teachers in East St. Louis, Ill., also went out on strike for more money.

In New York and Milwaukee, Wis., there were boycotts.

Utah Gov. George D. Clyde refused last week to call a special legislative session to consider more school money for teachers, and triggered the Utah Education Assn's. call Saturday for a walkout today and tomorrow of its 10,000 members.

Most school boards ordered schools open in the face of the threatened action. But the openings were considered only a formality.

East St. Louis teachers went on strike for higher wages today and classes at at least one school were canceled after the principal reported "the students are tearing up the building."

School Supt. John H. Steuernagel granted Principal Carl Compton of Clark Junior High School permission to dismiss classes after students became unruly.

Steuernagel said there was full attendance in at least one other school. He said, "classes will proceed in certain areas as long as possible."

Teachers manned picket lines in front of at least two junior high schools and in front of the board of education building.

Daylong demonstrations in support of school integration throughout New York got underway to mark the 10th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court's school desegregation decision.

A report from Long Island said that an anniversary boycott of the predominantly Negro northeast Amityville School was "very effective." School board president Carl Schlichtemeier said no disciplinary action would be taken against absent students "for the irresponsible action planned by adults."

In New York City a demonstration was scheduled for this afternoon at city hall. Negro students were transported to five predominantly white schools for "study-ins" with the approval of the board of education. Thousands of persons participated in "freedom Sunday" parades yesterday — the actual anniversary of the Supreme Court decision.

In Elizabeth, N.J., the executive secretary of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People told a Freedom Sunday rally that the civil rights debate in the U.S. Senate was "kind of obscene." Roy Wilkins said it was hard to reconcile 58 days of Senate debate with the constitutional aspirations of 20 million Negroes.

Negro students boycotted Milwaukee public schools today in what was billed as the biggest and most emphatic civil rights demonstration yet in this city.

Negro leaders said they were protesting de facto segrgation of schools in the city's "inner core" area where a majority of Milwaukee's Negro population lives.

There was no immediate count as to how many of the nearly 24,000 non-white students took part. Picketing was to have taken place at 12 of the 25 schools with predominantly Negro enrollments. Eleven protesters, led by a Negro minister, marched in front of the school administration building.

Lawmaker Doubts State's Welfare Savings Claims

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — Assemblyman John G. Veneman (R-Modesto) has challenged figures of the state department of social welfare in which they had estimated savings which would be made in counties under AB59, the comprehensive welfare bill passed in 1963.

Veneman referred to a statistical sheet produced by the department on July 1, 1963, showing that every county would save money under operation of the program. Most controversial innovation under AB59 was the requirement that aid to families with dependent children (the former aid to needy children program) be paid when a parent or both parents are unemployed or under-employed.

Veneman said he had written letters to all 58 county welfare directors and had received 23 responses. Of that total, only the welfare director in Yuba county said the department's estimates were accurate.

ODYSSEY ENDS

Boy Phantom Lives It Up At N.Y. Fair

NEW YORK (UPI)—An adventuresome 12-year-old who freeloaded on the world's fair grounds for 11 straight days had his plans to make a summer of it cut short yesterday by a sharp-eyed exhibitor.

Until then, Dominick Tucci had played a successful game of hide-and-seek with his parents and fair security police, sustained by his own initiative and people who throw coins into fountains.

SNEAKS IN

Dominick, who sneaked onto the fairgrounds May 6, established his elusiveness beyond a doubt by remaining there day and night until yesterday, defying the best efforts of his parents and police to find him. They knew he was there.

His ability to live off the land, so to speak, proved the blond seventh grader's enterprising nature. He ate well, slept comfortably and managed to come up with enough spending money to occupy his waking hours.

SEES PICTURE

In fact, he may prove to be one of the few fairgoers who left the grounds with as much money as he had when he arrived.

Dominick's oddyssey ended yesterday when a concessionaire who had seen his picture in a newspaper noticed him at a pavilion and alerted police.

They telephoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benito Tucci. The boy's much relieved mother said he is "adventuresome, but not a bad boy."

Dominick set out for the fair from his home in suburban Long Island May 6 after his parents told him they would not visit the fair until next fall.

FOUNTAIN COINS

During the 11 days and 10 nights he spent on the fairgrounds he spend the pre-dawn hours each day retrieving the coins people had thrown into wishing-well fountains.

"Sometimes I got as much as five dollars," he said. "I ate hamburgers and had sodas. Except last Friday I had chow mein."

He spent four nights in the dark and empty Continental Insurance Co. pavilion, and other nights in the Coca Cola, African and Johnson's Wax Pavilions.

Was he afraid?

"There's nothing to be afraid of," he said. "The fair is crawling with cops."

Ship Afire Off Mexico, 45 Safe, 10 Missing

LONG BEACH (AP) — Forty-five persons were rescued but 10 are missing and another dead in a fire that swept a Norwegian freighter, the Sandanger, at sea off Baja California.

It was not known whether the 10 were still aboard the blazing freighter or had taken to a lifeboat.

Names of survivors were learned immediately. The ship had 56 aboard, including 11 passengers.

TRIBUTE TO KENNEDY

Mrs. Rose Kennedy, mother of late President John F. Kennedy, walks with North Carolina Governor Terry Sanford at yesterday's tribute program at Chapel Hill, N.C. Just behind Gov. Sanford is Ted Kennedy (left) and Dr. Billy Graham, in dark glasses. The evangelist said that the late President "taught us the need for racial understanding: more than any other man in this generation he spoke courageously to this point." Scheduled presentation to Mrs. Kennedy of check to benefit the planned memorial library at Harvard was delayed to complete tabulation of donations, but Gov. Sanford said state's quota of $230,000 was met. (AP Wirephoto)

Paraplegic Private Pilot Dies In Collision With Navy Jet

WESTMINSTER (AP)—A paraplegic pilot was killed when his light plane collided with a Navy jet attack bomber.

The Navy jet, an A4-D Skyhawk, was damaged while making its landing approach at Los Alamitos Naval Air Station, but it landed safely.

Killed as a result of the collision Saturday was Joseph P. Viens, 42, a test engineer and paraplegic who carried a student pilot's license to fly his own hand-controlled airplane.

Police said Viens, of nearby Anaheim, died instantly when his light plane hit the ground in a steep dive.

The light plane's tail section had been sheared off by the jet's wing.

Investigators found Viens' crutches inside the wreckage.

Navy pilot Lt. Cmdr. Milton E. Johnson, 35, a reserve officer, was banking his jet, he said, when he felt a bump and saw that a wing was damaged.

He said he never saw Viens' plane.

Though Viens was permitted to fly solo, his license prohibited him from carrying passengers.

Marin Man Critical After Heart Trouble

Donald E. Boothryd, 54, of 634 Northern Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, was reported to be in critical condition but slightly improving at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco today suffering from acute heart trouble.

He was given first aid by Tamalpais firemen at his home after suffering a heart attack at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Family Problems Keep Courts Busy

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—One-fourth of the record number of 373,000 cases filed in superior courts in California last year involved domestic relations cases—divorces, separate maintenance or annulment proceedings.

The administrative office of the courts said there were 93,000 domestic relations cases filed in the fiscal year ended June 30, 1963. On that date, there were 335 superior court judges serving in the state.

Other large categories of filings in the superior court included personal injury cases, 40,800; criminal proceedings, 35,200; and juvenile cases, 47,000.

Khrushchev In Political Chats With Nasser

CAIRO (AP)—Premier Khrushchev took an unscheduled breather from his gruelling official program today but continued political talks with his host, President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

The Soviet premier returned to Cairo on Sunday looking fatigued from his visit to the Aswan High Dam site and other attractions in upper Egypt. But he seemed determined to press for the political aims of his 17-day visit.

Khrushchev, 70, has let no opportunity pass to portray the Soviet Union as a friend and protector of the Arabs and other nonaligned people.

He also has been countering the Communist Chinese campaign to stir up hostilities in Asia, Africa and Latin America toward the Soviet Union.

Khrushchev at Aswan gave a plainspoken rebuke to Arab leaders' nationalist and racial prejudices on which the Russians say the Red Chinese are playing for anti-Soviet ends.

Arab leaders were believed somewhat taken aback by Khrushchev's sharp lecture on the narrowness of the doctrines of Arab unity, delivered in an impromptu speech Saturday night.

The Soviet premier minced no words despite the presence of Presidents Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria, Abdul Salem Aref of Iraq and Nasser. He appealed for a Communist class struggle rather than the Arab brand of socialism.

Egyptian officials said there would be no reaction to Khrushchev's comments. Nasser is said to have decided before the Soviet leader's arrival that nothing would be permitted to upset the appearance of Soviet-Egyptian harmony.

New Radio Voice At KTIM Mike

We've got another Texan at KTIMarin on the announcer staff. His name is ED McMILLAN . . . The ladies are already inquiring about ED after hearing his easy, pleasant manner on the SAN ANSELMO TO YOU program and during the evening DINNER MUSIC on FM. (Sorry, girls—he's been taken—he's married!)...

ED IS TALL, handsome—and was born in Houston. In 1941 he was graduated from Jefferson Davis High and went into the Air Force. After two years in armed forces radio and television and public information service he was discharged—but was so popular at the base he was promptly hired by Biloxi Television as a newsman . . . a death in his family brought him to California where he took one look at Marin and fell in love with it. This happened about the same time Karl Barron announced his retirement . . . Needless to say, we're happy to have him as a member of the KTIM family . . .

WE ARE GOING into final arrangements for election coverage on June 2 . . . The LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS, the I-J and a host of special personnel will make KTIM-coverage the finest in our history. If you are one of the 38 per cent of households without FM—get with it! A small table model FM radio costs very little more than any table model set—and the sound is 100 per cent better. No static—no fading—and beautiful KTIM-FM sound all evening long . . .

ATTENTION Commuter Club Presidents! All of your members should carry KTIM bumper strips. Non-political, beautifully colored in fluorescent red for night safety when your tail light burns out. Aim of the 101 HOT LINE is to get you home safely. Two Injured In Separate Auto Crashes

A Kentfield man and a Larkspur woman were injured in Larkspur traffic accidents during the last 24 hours, according to Larkspur police.

A car driven by George Warren Rust Jr., 25, of 832 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, ran off the road in the 700 block of Magnolia Avenue and hit a tree, scattering parts from the car in a 30-foot radius at 10:30 p.m. yesterday.

Rust was treated at the scene by John Barley of 4 Ward Street, Larkspur, a driver for Redwood Taxi Co. who is trained in Red Cross procedures, and taken to Marin General Hospital where he was in good condition today with a broken nose and multiple face cuts.

Fern Ann Vincent, 34, of 80 Murray Avenue, Larkspur, was in fair condition at Marin General Hospital with cuts on forehead and left leg after the car she was driving hit a car owned by Lowell Hawk, parked in front of his home at 35 Murray Avenue, at 8:30 a.m. today.

Napa Escapee Pleads Guilty To Robberies

Thomas Ezekial Rivera, 24-year-old Napa State Hospital escapee involved with a friend in a Feb. 13 crime spree, today pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court to two counts of armed robbery.

Two other felony counts, kidnapping and another armed robbery, were dismissed by Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. on recommendation of the district attorney's office.

Judge Sims continued on the two guilty pleas pending a probation report June 8.

Rivera admitted armed robbery of Joyce Elizabeth McColm in the real estate office of Howard M. Morse, 1726 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, and robbery of Mrs. Mabel K. Timmer and her daughter, Anita, of $42 at Court San Rafael motel on Puerto Suello Hill.

Charges of kidnaping Mrs. McColm, of 6 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia, and of robbing Opal and Laban Judd, elderly couple from Oregon, were dismissed.

Rivera and a fellow escapee from Napa, Richard Dorrance, 33, were arrested by San Anselmo police during the spree. Dorrance was returned to Napa.

Robert Souza To Fill Seat In Fairfax

Robert R. Souza, chairman of the Fairfax Recreation Commission, is slated to be appointed a member of the Fairfax City Council next Monday to succeed Freeman Blake.

Blake, whose term expires in 1966, resigned last week because council duty conflicted with work and family requirements.

Souza is supervisor of employment and service for the California Department of Employment office in San Rafael. He was not a candidate for the council in the recent election.

A resident of Fairfax for about eight years, he lives at 18 Claus Circle.

City Clerk Alice Leonesio said Souza will take his oath of office at a meeting of the council next Monday.

Souza was selected by the council Friday night, but Mayor Cornelis Van Vliet said he made no announcement then because at that time it was not certain Souza would accept the appointment.

teacher, wrote in chalk on a makeshift blackboard covered with butcher paper: "Write your name. Freedom school."

Mrs. Kenneth Pratt of Mill Valley, a former teacher, lacking space took her students outside on the lawn.

Mrs. Harris read pupils a story about slaves while they worked with paper and crayons on the floor.

All first classes were on Negro history. Mrs. Pratt showed her charges a large chart entitled, "We All Came to California Together," and specified such peoples as explorers, Spanish guides and mountain men.

"Have yo uever heard of the mountain men?" she asked. "Have you ever heard of Kit Carson?" "Yes, yes," the pupils responded. She then said that a man named York, a Negro, came west with Lewis and Clark. Captain Shorey, a Negro, sailed out of San Francisco and Jacob Dodson, also a Negro, was an explorer with Fremont, she related.

She told the class the first Christian buried in a California mission was a Negro, Ignacio Ramirez. "He was a Negro but had a Spanish name," Mrs. Pratt said.

There was a certain amount of chattering and jumping about, both in church and out, but most of the children listened as attentively as they could under the unusual school circumstances.

Later in the day children in the primary school were to write a paper on "What I Want to Do." There was to be a community sing, guitar playing by Nina Payne of Mill Valley, and art lessons by Mrs. Hadden Roth and Mrs. Al Corkland, both of Mill Valley. Lunch was between 11:30 and 12:30, the youngsters having taken their own.

There were many parents present.

Morris Brown, principal at Manzanita School, looked over his playground at the first recess and said, "Normally there would be about 200 children playing." Today there were 36.

"Every teacher has one or more pupils," he said. "The highest is eight." He said, however, that with the staggered class system, more children were due to arrive shortly.

Mrs. Rose Peterson, teaching an ungraded class at Manzanita, had four students, and a completely integrated class. Two were Negroes (a boy and a girl, one was Caucasian, and one a child of Mexican descent.

No Meeting

There will be no meeting tomorrow night of the Sausalito City Council because several councilmen will be out of the city, City Mgr. Charles A. Brown said today. The city council will meet May 26.

Planning Staff Overruled On Lot Variances

The Marin County Planning Commission today overruled the recommendation of the planning staff and approved variances on small lots in the San Geronimo Valley, although the lots are not legal building sites under new zoning for the area.

Two weeks ago the commission staff reported there had been numerous minor subdivisions on land in the valley before the new zoning, requiring larger lots, took effect in March. In cases where it would be possible to combine lots for larger sites, especially where adjacent lots are under single ownership, the staff had asked denial of variances.

However, today commission chairman Niels Schultz said as far as he was concerned, variances should be considered on the basis of the lot as it is recorded. Commissioner Henry C. Hankins said he felt the staff position was a harrassment of the owners.

Plea Of Guilty In Forgery Case

Patrick Norman Waterhouse, 40-year-old transient, pleaded guilty today in Marin Superior Court to forging and passing a $5 check last summer at Gonzales Hacienda, 809 B St., San Rafael.

A second count of forgery was dismissed. Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. continued judgement until June 8, pending a probation report.

Mental Health Fund Drive Is Still On

The campaign for contributions for mental health, started Saturday by volunteer Bell Ringers for the Marin Assn. for Mental Health, continued today and will extend to Wednesday in some areas of Marin.

The association reported today that the results of the weekend campaign have not yet been tallied.

Boy Scouts Camp Out Despite Saturday Rains

More than 400 Boy Scouts representing 23 Scout Troops in the Redwood District competed in a weekend camporee at Camp Tamarancho, northwest of Fairfax, despite Saturday's rain.

Miller Avenue, just outside the Mill Valley city line—the scene of a rumble which followed the teen dance fracas the preceding night.

Hal H. Schwartz, Mill Valley Teen Club manager, was cut on the hand during the dance there by a Negro youth who wielded a knife to start a free-for-all which required joint efforts of the Mill Valley police, sheriff's department, highway patrol, and eight other police departments.

Air police reported they averted a major outbreak at the Hamilton dance "by sheer numbers." Assisting air police in controlling the huge crowd were Novato police.

The throng was attracted to the base dance by a bill of entertainers including the Nomads dance band with disc jockey Honest John Trotter and swim dancer Judy Mas as special attractions.

Thefts From Two Cars Are Reported

San Rafael police today reported a car theft and two thefts from cars over the weekend.

Gerald Wayne Michelini of Apt. D, 139 Park Avenue, reported at 6:30 p.m. yesterday that his 1957 Ford sedan was stolen from the Montecito Shopping Center parking lot. He told police he had left the key in the ignition.

John Richard Holland of 1036 Los Gamos Road reported at 1 a.m. yesterday that someone took a spare tire and wheel, from his pickup truck.

William E. Blanton of 918 Mission Avenue reported at 11:30 p.m., Saturday that someone took his wife's purse, containing $5 cash, keys and identification, from the rear seat of his unlocked car while it was parked in front of 5 Vivian Way.

Coin Auction Set

An election of a nominating committee and a coin auction will be held Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. at Brown's Hall, Mill Valley, at a meeting of the Marin Coin Club. There will also be a report on last week end's coin show.

Illegal Surgery Plea Is Delayed

Entering of plea by Anthony D. Rader, 27-year-old San Rader, 27-year-old San Rafael bartender charged with performing a March 12 abortion, was continued in Marin Superior Court today until 9:30 a.m. next Monday.

Dorothy Frances Leet, Mill Valley, charged in a second abortion case, was given until June 1 when a hearing on her demurrer is scheduled. Mrs. Leet, a cocktail waitress in San Rafael, is accused jointly with Theodore Stephen Caruso, 46, El Sobrante, of conspiracy to commit an April 5 abortion of a San Anselmo woman.

Collision Slightly Hurts Corte Madera Motorist

Michael Allen Weinhold, 19, of 78 Granada Drive, Corte Madera, was treated for a cut right leg and nose after a head-on collision in his small foreign sports car today on Paradise Drive, 400 yards south of the Corte Madera cloverleaf at 7:45 a.m.

Weinhold's car drifted over the centerline when he reached over to close the glove compartment and was hit by a southbound car driven by John Frederick Noddin, 47, of 101 Belvedere Drive, Strawberry, according to Corte Madera police.

Prowler Clouts Camp Lifeguard

A 19-year-old lifeguard was struck in the head at 1 a.m. yesterday when he attempted to question a prowler at the Arequipa Girl Scout Camp near Fairfax.

The Marin County Sheriff's Office said Roger J. Nance Jr. of Pacifica spotted a "slender male subject" near the camp dormitories and spoke to him. Nance told deputies the youth ran down a stairway toward the swimming pool, then bent over a moment, apparently picking up a rock or some other object to throw at him.

Nance was dazed when the object struck him, and the prowler left the area. Nance was later examined at Marin General Hospital.

Woman Still Missing From Tam Valley Home

No trace of Mrs. Gertrude Kavesh Jones, 43, missing from her Tamalpais Valley home since May 10, was reported today by Marin County sheriff's office.

Her husband, Bruce B. Jones, union organizer, said she left the home at 301 Richardson Way following an argument. She attempted to take her own life in 1959, he said.

Salinger Stumps Marin In Rain

By WAT TAKESHITA

PIERRE SALINGER
Busy day in Marin

Pierre Salinger stumped through a rain-soaked Marin Saturday evening, speaking at a cocktail party in Ross and two dinners, in his quest for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Senate.

A Novato picnic for Salinger was rained out. But the former press secretary to President John F. Kennedy spoke before several hundred Marinites at a cocktail party at the Jerome Flax home in Ross, a dinner at Rancho Rafael, and at the Mill Valley Outdoor Art Club.

Salinger struck out at his chief Democratic opponent, State Controller Alan Cranston. When the governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general were fighting for a civil rights program in California, Cranston "took no stand at all," said Salinger.

"We need a senator who will stand up and be counted," he told a crowd of more than 200 at Rancho Rafael. "I do not think a seat in the Senate of the United States is to be passed out like a good conduct medal because a man has been a good fellow or faithful party worker or a dedicated tax collector."

When the California Democratic Assembly endorsed Cranston, and Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk withdrew from the race, Salinger said he began thinking of running because he "didn't want competition stifled."

Salinger charged that the Cranston camp is "making a conscious effort to freeze out all competition."

Salinger said he wants to put to use his experience in Washington where he served as press secretary for both Presidents Kennedy and Johnson.

"I am proud to have spoken for two presidents, and I believe that I can speak clearly and effectively for the people of California on the floor of the U.S. Senate," he declared.

The main issues today are jobs for those displaced by automation, and the furtherance of human rights, Salinger said. "In 1964 the people of California must reject efforts to repeal the Rumford Act."

In foreign affairs, Salinger supports the Kennedy policy of "strength and firmness and the willingness to talk to prevent the country from going back to nuclear confrontation." He called for a flexible foreign policy to avoid nuclear war.

Salinger described himself as a "responsible liberal, a person who can look at new problems with new eyes."

He said he is in favor of medicare financed under the social security system to provide for older citizens. He would protect natural resources, such as the redwoods, water resources and agricultural interests, and fight slums and urban spread, he promised.

Alvin H. Goldstein Jr. of Sleepy Hollow introduced the candidate and Mrs. Salinger.

Two San Rafael High School co-eds, Leslie Retallick, 16, and Chris Rast, 15, sang a "Song to Pierre," which they had composed themselves. The girls call themselves "Marenbay Singers." Leslie also strummed a guitar while she sang.

$12,000 Damage Caused By Smoke, Blaze In Hub

Fire and smoke caused damage estimated at $12,000 to the home of Richard J. Larkey, 405 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo, when a mattress ignited at 11:19 p.m. Saturday.

The Marin County Fire Department said the blaze, which apparently began in a waste basket next to a bed, caused $4,500 damage to the house and $7,500 to its contents, although the actual fire was confined to the bedroom.

Three units from the San Anselmo Fire Department assisted two county fire trucks in fighting the fire, which was about one block outside the city limits.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom theorized the waste basket's contents may have caught fire after Larkey or his wife inadvertently emptied an ashtray containing live ashes into it.

Sheriff's Deputies Find Stolen Car In Lagunitas

Sheriff's deputies yesterday found a car that was stolen from in front of a Tamalpais Valley woman's home Friday night.

Owner was Mrs. Patricia Mitchell of 314 Tennessee Avenue, who told deputies she may have left her keys in the ignition when she parked the car late Friday night.

It was recovered at 11:30 a.m. yesterday on Centura Boulevard in Lagunitas.

County Board To Take Up Vets Building

Construction of a veterans memorial building at the Marin County fairgrounds and initial development of the fairgrounds itself will be discussed tomorrow before the Board of Supervisors.

The hearing on the veterans' building, which is expected to be a part of the fair development, is set for 10 a.m., but public works director Donald R. Frost, on the afternoon agenda, has also submitted a five-year spending program for county funds plus pari-mutuel money from the state.

"It has been determined," Frost reported, "that the facility which will best provide the maximum usefulness to the fair program, as well as serve other community needs, will be a flat-floor exhibition building of approximately 40,000 square feet."

Cost of the building is estimated at $1,512,000. As of July 1 the county will have on hand $963,000 for the project, including $315,000 pari-mutuel funds and $648,000 in local money being saved for the veterans' building.

Each year the state is expected to add $105,000. The county contribution during the 1964-65 fiscal year is expected to be $73,000 and to grow slightly each year.

The five-year plan calls for the architect to complete plans during the 1964-65 fiscal year and for construction to start the following fiscal year. The building would be completed by Sept. 30, 1967.

The final $105,000 from the state would be used for additions to the fair parking lot and other improvements to the fairgrounds in 1968.

This proposed plan is a substitute for the plan of the last few years to have a veterans' memorial auditorium near the civic center and use the state fair money for construction of an amphitheater near the lagoon on the fairgrounds.

County administrator Alan Bruce, joined by Frost and auditor-controller Michael Mitchell, has asked the change in plans because the money being collected for the veterans' building was increasing at about the same pace as the increase in construction costs.

Flip Plates Suggested For Gate Rush Traffic

An Orinda inventor has devised a new system to control rush-hour traffic on the Golden Gate Bridge, a series of flip plates along the roadway that would be operated by air jets.

Inventor Walter R. Pilcher said the system would be safer and cheaper than the proposed overhead arch system which has drawn protests from Marin residents.

Pilcher will present his invention to Golden Gate Bridge District directors who have allocated $50,000 for the study of lane reversing systems including pop-up tubes imbedded in the roadway.

Under Pilcher's system, strips of rubberized plastic plates, 10 inches wide and one-half inch high, would be laid along each lane of traffic, and could be flipped over to expose or conceal a double white line.

They would be flipped over by a concentrated jet of air released from a specially equipped car or truck. They are designed so they could not be flipped over by the winds, but only by direct jets of air, Pilcher said.

Church Board Recommends Vote For Tam Unification

The session (board of elders) of Westminster Presbyterian Church of Richardson Bay urged members yesterday to vote for the Tamalpais Unified School District as a means towards ending what it called an impasse on the racial issue in Sausalito schools.

A resolution by the session was read to church members which declared:

"Manzanita School is at present over 90 per cent Negro and is far below the standards of the other Sausalito schools in many ways. Richardson Bay School is 50 per cent Negro. For many years the Negro community and the Sausalito School District have been at an impasse in efforts to end this segregation and its attendant problems.

"Unification will spread the moral and financial obligations over a much larger community and can restore perspective. Failure of unification will continue the present impasse, and a deepening bitterness in the Negro community is the very least that can result."

The resolution continued that "the unification proposal is sound and deserves our support on its own merits." It concluded:

"The argument that a better plan can be found (the present plan is a result of 12 years of study) implies at the very least a two-year delay, and the hour is already very late. It is not a matter of 'dragging the race issue' into a previously uncluttered question. On the contrary, the race issue cannot be overlooked. We can no longer pretend that the children in the Manzanita and Richardson Bay schools are beyond our area of concern."

KTIM Forum Set On Conservation

Conservation will be the topic of the final Found Table Forum program on KTIM-FM at 8 p.m. today, produced by College of Marin.

Panelists will be Science teachers Alfonso Molina of the college and Gordon Chan of Sir Francis Drake High School, William A. Evans of the California Fish and Game Dept. and George Wheelwright of Sausalito. Moderator will be Carlton Cherry, head of the college's math, science and engineering division.

The hour-long broadcast will be recorded for replay at 3 p.m. Sunday. Interested citizens may attend and take part in the panel.

Meeting Cancelled

Chairman George V. Banning of the Belvedere recreation commission said there would be no meeting tonight because of lack of business.

CITY-WIDE MUSIC FETE FILLS HOUSE

Groups Range From 585-Voice Chorus Down To Popular Sextet; Many Awards Presented

Musicians of San Rafael city schools entertained their parents and were presented awards yesterday in the 14th annual all-city schools music festival.

The San Rafael High School gymnasium was packed with performers and audience for the afternoon program. With nearly 1,300 youngsters in the program, the festival jammed the gymnasium to the point where it appears it needs to move outdoors to play to a sufficient audience.

Five hundred and 85 voices were massed for the combined elementary school chorus. Seventy young musicians played in the San Rafael High School Band, 40 in the elementary schools band, 98 in the combined Davidson and Santa Venetia Junior High Schools Band; 120 in the elementary schools string orchestra; 39 in the junior high schools string orchestra. There were 77 voices in the San Rafael High School a cappella choir, 50 in the junior high choir, 38 in the Terra Linda High School choir. Ninety-five played in the Terra Linda High Band and 38 in the Terra Linda High orchestra.

In contrast, a half dozen boys comprised the Davidson Boys' Ensemble, whose "Partner Songs" were as enthusiastically received as, for instance, the difficult "Fingal's Cave" by Mendelssohn which was played by the Terra Linda High School Band.

Top award, the Max F. Walton Award, was presented to Rick Hegeler, a senior trumpeter at San Rafael High School.

The National School Orchestra Award went to Margaret Noe, cellist, a Terra Linda High School senior.

Nineteen Parent-Teacher Assn., music festival and memorial awards were presented to winners chosen from among 77 finalists by panels of judges last month, the identities being kept secret until yesterday's performance.

List Of Other Winners

Frank L. Lucas Memorial Award: Bonnie Anderson, oboe, freshman, Terra Linda High. B. J. Simontacci Memorial Award: Linda Ritter, violin, sophomore, Terra Linda High. Oliver Hartzell Memorial Award: Buddy Oakley, violin, sophomore, San Rafael High. Edward Day Memorial Award: Tom Oleari, oboe, sophomore, San Rafael High. As members of the All-State Honor Band: Douglas Cole, clarinet, Terra Linda; Kerry Porter, contra bass clarinet, Terra Linda; Jeff Greenberg, contra bass clarinet, Terra Linda, and Marsha Lang, oboe and bass, Terra Linda.

The $200 P-TA music festival scholarship was divided between Karen Armington, viola, Davidson seventh grade, and Debbie Davis, cello, MacPhail sixth grade.

The program was under direction of Hugo Rinaldi, head of the music department of the city schools. Supt. Bert C. Corona presented the awards.

San Rafael Man Is Cited For Hit-Run Driving

Michael Stephen Whitaker, 22, of 460 Canal Street, San Rafael, was cited yesterday for hit-run driving after a three-way crash on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at the Hub intersection at 7:39 p.m.

A car driven by Philip Gam, 23, of San Francisco, reportedly was hit from the rear by Whitaker's pickup truck and pushed into the rear of a car driven by Rosalio Macias, 38, of Santa Rosa.

Minor injuries were suffered by Gam and his three passengers, William Leaf, 24, Mrs. Andria Leaf, 23, and Christine Kaeline, 20, all of San Francisco. They were treated by private physicians.

Whitaker was stopped six blocks from the scene of the accident by a San Anselmo policeman who, unaware of the collision, had seen him run a stop sign at Bridge and San Anselmo Avenues.

Hamilton's Drill Team Has Busy Weekend

The Flying Rifles, Hamilton Air Force Base precision drill team that mixes jazz tempos with military maneuvers, had a big weekend.

The Rifles won second place among military drill teams in the Luther Burbank Festival parade Saturday at Santa Rosa. Last night, they appeared on television on the Ed Sullivan show.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Shool Board To Study Trimming Publication Job

The San Rafael Board of Education will discuss the post of publications officer, now held by Mrs. Lillian Seaver, at a closed personnel session at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the district administration building.

At the last board meeting it was proposed that the job be reduced from all year to nine-and-a-half months.

The board also will discuss the job of director of maintenance, operations and transportation, which will become vacant upon the resignation of Lewis G. McCall June 30. McCall will leave for a similar job in San Luis Obispo.

Closed sessions can only be held for hiring, firing and the hearing of charges against employees.

At its regular session at 8 p.m., the board will hear a report on plans for demolition of the southwest corner of the E Street School and renovation of the building.

The board also will report of the costs of setting the teachers salary schedule at $5,200 to $10,500, as compared to the current salary schedule ranging from $5,100 to $10,030.

Two Meetings Set On Code For Children

Tiburon Peninsula parents will discuss the possibility of creating a code of conduct for teen-agers at two sessions this week.

The first meeting will be at 8:30 p.m. today at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Belvedere, and the second meeting at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Bal Aire.

Discussion leaders will meet at 7:30 p.m. today under the direction of Edward C. Pino, superintendent of the Reed School District, and Llewelyn A. White, rector of St. Stephen's.

Pino said that a questionnaire has been sent to parents of teen-agers in the school district, asking whether they believed a set of standards should be drawn up, and if so, what should be covered.

About 25 per cent of the questionnaires have been returned, and of these 90 per cent favor setting up standards, reported Robert Gaw, principal of Del Mar School.

The standards would not be rules, but would serve as guidelines for parents, Gaw said.

Tiburon Youth Beaten By Trio In Belvedere

Dennis Coombs, 19, of 541 Comstock Drive, Tiburon, required stitches over his right eyebrow at Marin General Hospital early yesterday after he was beaten by three unidentified youths on Beach Road in Belvedere.

Coombs told sheriff's deputies the three jumped from a car as he was walking along the road about 1 a.m., swore at him, then began hitting him. He said they left when he kicked at them to defend himself.

Supreme Court Upsets Old Citizenship Penalty

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today barred the government from depriving naturalized Americans of their U. S. citizenship for living abroad for prolonged periods of time.

The ruling could open the legal door for hundreds of foreign-born to try to regain citizenship they have lost on such grounds.

By a 5-3 vote, the court declared unconstitutional the section of the immigration and naturalization law that forfeited the citizenship of a naturalized person for living in the country of his birth for three years or any other foreign country for five years.

Speaking for the majority, Justice William O. Douglas said the law was based "on the impermissible assumption that naturalized citizens as a class are less reliable and bear less allegiance to this country than do the native born."

"This is an assumption that is impossible for us to make," Douglas declared.

In other actions today, the court:

1. Ruled that incriminating statements obtained by federal agents from an indicted person in the absence of counsel may not be used as evidence at his federal trial. The 6-3 ruling reversed the narcotics conviction of Winston Massiah, a seaman, whose conversation with a co-defendant was obtained by a listening device.

2. Agreed to decide next term whether the United Mine Workers illegally conspired with big coal companies in Tennessee and Kentucky to force small operators out of business. Lower courts awarded $325,000 damages to a Tennessee firm on grounds the mine workers union had conspired in violation of the Sherman antitrust law.

3. Refused to grant a hearing to an international group headed by California scientist Linus C. Spaulding which sought to stop U. S. nuclear testing by a court injunction.

San Rafael May Open Talks On Corporation Yard Sale

The City of San Rafael is due its first "nibble" tonight on purchase of city corporation yard on Francisco Boulevard, sale of which is expected to help finance a new city hall.

Attorney Samuel W. Gardiner has reserved time on the agenda for the San Rafael City Council meeting starting at 8 p.m. to discuss possible purchase of the property.

The council will hear a petition of protest from property owners in Glenwood subdivision No. 6 regarding allegedly improper drainage installation. Copies of the petition have already been sent to public works and building departments and steps started to correct the deficiencies, according to City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen.

Master plan approval and use permits for the Northgate North "planned community" commercial and office building development, approved last week by the planning commission with a long series of restrictions, will be before the council. Hearing dates will be set on rezoning of Loch Lomond Highlands and Rafael Woods.

Norris M. Rawles, public works director, is to report on discussions with the California Department of Public Works on coordination between state and city on traffic re-routing during extension of Third Street.

Bids are to be called for an automatic sprinkler system and a restroom and storage building at Victor Jones Memorial Park in Glenwood.

Postmaster Job Interviews Due

Persons seeking appointment as postmaster of Belvedere-Tiburon will be interviewed by a subcommittee of the Marin County Democratic Central Committee Saturday.

Appointments for interviews must be made with Robert L. Harmon, 20 Eucalyptus Road, Belvedere, chairman of the subcommittee.

Postmaster Mrs. S. Ehrenfeldt of Belvedere, will retire in October.

"Where do you get your rebozos?"

"The same place I get my cement!"

Many years ago, rebozos (colorful hand-woven shawls) were a major export of Mexico. Today, Mexican exporters are more apt to be offering cement.

Like other nations, Mexico became industrialized and more technically accomplished. Now, Mexico exports more than 1000 manufactured articles ranging from ball bearings to electric toasters.

Half of the imports of our number one Latin American customer are machinery, equipment and supplies to keep production booming.

The tradition of quality synonymous with rebozos is kept alive in today's products. You can still get rebozos —the same place you get your cement.

Knowledge of our modern neighbor is important today. Send for the free 16-page booklet, "Know Mexico," Box 1900, New York 19.

Marin Backing Sought On New Transit Proposal

County Administrator Alan Bruce will ask the Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow to urge Rep. Don H. Clausen to give "vigorous support" to the federal urban mass transportation bill, now pending in Congress.

The bill would authorize 500 million dollars over three years for meeting transit needs, Bruce said, and the Marin Transit District, if it is formed, could probably qualify.

Last week the supervisors wired Clausen asking that he not oppose the bill, pending a firm recommendation from Marin.

The federal bill would allow an agency, such as the Marin Transit District, to give subventions to other transit agencies, or private bus companies, to improve commuter service, Bruce said. However, the money would be usable only for capital costs or development, not to meet operating expenses.

San Jose Budget Is On Agenda

The 1964-65 preliminary budget will be presented to San Jose School District trustees at 8 p.m. today when they meet in the Meadow Park School library.

The trustees will hear reports on the kindergarten registration on May 7, and on anticipated enrollment for next year.

They will consider use of the Lynwood School playground for the city recreation program, a curriculum report, plans for the intermediate school graduation, and reports on the maintenance program and the camping trip by Lynwood School this week.

USF Alumni Club

University of San Francisco Alumni Eudcation Club will hold its first off-campus meeting from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at Samuel P. Taylor State Park. Alumni and guests will meet in the picnic area near the park entrance.

Novato Home Looted While Owner In Mexico

A Black Point man returned from an extended trip to Mexico during the weekend and found his home ransacked, with some $270 worth of his possessions missing.

Hugh M. Casey of 20 Beattie Road told the sheriff's office he had been in Mexico since last Dec. 1. He said the stolen items included two radios, a table, a .22 caliber rifle, a pair of binoculars, and liquor.

Six governors of California are buried in Mountain View Cemetery in Oakland.

Dial '1' Should Be Ended On Intra-Marin Phone Calls

It doesn't seem right that a person living in one neighborhood of Marin must dial "1" to phone someone in another Marin neighborhood.

But that is what we are put to.

It hasn't been many years since there even were separate listings by towns in the Marin telephone directory. That was a mess. You looked under San Rafael to find a Kentfield resident, unless he happened to live close enough to Larkspur to be served by the Larkspur-Corte Madera exchange

It was indeed difficult in those days to avoid spending inordinately long periods of time searching the Marin phone book to find a Marin number. When all those artificial delineations among listings were wiped out, it was a happy day. The phone company was deservedly showered with compliments.

But we were still stuck with toll charges among and between certain Marin areas.

With the advent of message units, automatic extra charging was instituted. It was substituted for the toll charges on intra-Marin calls.

It survives to this day, through the dial "1" mechanism.

It is a pain in the neck.

Marin is more and more a community unto itself. It is less and less a group of separate communities.

Dial "1" should go.

It is easy to "get on the back" of the phone company.

But that isn't where the chief obstacle lies.

In fact, at least on two different occasions, the telephone company has sought to do away with dial "1" and message unit extra-charges for certain intra-Marin calls.

At one time the company petitioned the Public Utilities Commission to abolish the system as it applies to calls between the areas served by the San Rafael and Sausalito exchanges. To compensate for the loss of income from the extra-charges, the phone company suggested a most modest increase in monthly basic rates.

The proposal was slapped down, with the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce among those leading the opposition. So the telephone company's good intentions went down the drain.

There was another similar effort north of San Rafael. It too died a-borning.

Having "had its ears knocked down" on at least two previous efforts, the phone company understandably may be reluctant to try again.

So we are stuck with dial "1" and extra charges for making certain intra-Marin calls.

It still isn't right.

It still needs to be remedied.

Why Do They Click?

On warm spring days and on through summer and autumn Marin's pastures and woods give forth a veritable chorus of insect noises. They hum, they chirp and they click.

In our neighborhood the most common and persistent insect noise is that which we call a "click bug," out of scientific ignorance. Almost any warm day this little insect repeatedly makes a sound resembling the breaking of a small dry twig.

Is it a serenade or mating song? Is it a warning for other insects of similar ilk to stay clear? Or is it simply a cold-blooded creature's song of joy at the warmth of a sunny afternoon?

We wish some entymologist among our readers would enlighten us.

Electronic Gadget Could Save Big Marin Vote Counters' Headache

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

ON ELECTION NIGHT, the Marin County Clerk and his election deputies will be staying up most of the night trying to compile the vote totals.

Straggling precincts will still be coming in the next morning.

But Cubic Corp. of San Diego claims it has an electronic gadget that can put an end to the all-night stands and the frantic struggle with figures. They contend that by midnight, the county clerk should be able to lean back and relax, because the machine will have done all the work.

Called the Cubic Votronics Vote Counter, it will count an average fat California ballot in less than two seconds with absolute accuracy.

THE COUNTY OF Riverside has just procured 24 Votronics machines. They were obtained under a lease-purchase plan at a cost of $686,000 for 24 machines. Cubic officials say the machines will save Riverside County more than one million dollars in the next 10 years in election costs.

The machines have been approved unanimously by the California State Commission on Vote Tabulating Devices. Cubic president Walter J. Sable predicts that they will be in widespread national use by 1966.

Rising populations and lengthy ballots are creating a nightmare during each election. Often, it is days before the voter knows the results of his choices.

BUT WON'T THIS new machine make errors? During the stringent tests preceding the California state approval, the Votronics machine ran 216,000 marks on 6,000 ballots with no errors. An independent laboratory, conducting the test, wanted to predict some probability of error on a long run, so they fed the 6,000 ballots through a second time. Again no error. Since then, more than a million ballots have been run through the machine and still no error, Cubic claims.

Official tests showed that operation of the machine is simple, even for the unskilled. In case of error by an operator, there is instantaneous signalling, with immediate resumption of correct counting.

Sounds like an answer to Marin's problems of vote counting.

Of course, our good friend "George," Marin's 1401 data processing computer, may resent the instrusion of such an efficient competitor.

Help Educationally Handicapped Children

Editor, Independent-Journal:

During their current deliberations on the 1964-65 school budget, the San Rafael Board of Education is being asked to help provide a program — where none now exists—for the many educationally handicapped children in the San Rafael District. Because certain board members hold to what we believe is a short-sighted fiscal policy, there is every danger that these children will not receive the education which is their birthright and which is within the power of this district to provide.

The professional educators and administrators in the San Rafael district have themselves recommended that their board approve adoption of such a program. Indeed, a committee of dedicated educators in this district has completed a study of the need for an educationally handicapped program. Results of their study revealed that some 40 elementary school children now enrolled in regular classes are in desperate need for this program right now, and 90 will need special education within the next two years.

With special education — which can be provided—these youngsters can become useful, productive citizens. Without it, they are candidates for school drop-out, personal frustration, and delinquency. In short, many educationally handicapped children are potential dangers to "the public peace, health or safety" of our state.

The above quote is not personal opinion alone. It is taken from the wording of California Assembly Bill 464, passed by the State Legislature last summer. This act provides state funds to repay local school districts a substantial part of the cost of setting up a program for the educationally handicapped. Again in the words of the bill as passed by the legislature, "this act is an urgency measure."

Yet, certain members of the San Rafael Board of Education apparently disagree. While the board haggles over decimal points, many children of San Rafael parents are deprived of the education they deserve and the community needs. The educationally handicapped — sometimes termed neurologically handicapped — child is educable. This is proven both in research centers across the nation and in special classrooms already established in counties as close to us as San Mateo and Contra Costa.

The programs in these Bay Region counties are functioning successfully. Educationally handicapped children enrolled in their special classes are responding and taking their places as alert, educated youngsters. Not so for the counterparts of these children in San Rafael. Parents of educationally handicapped children—as well as taxpayers who in later years may pay the costs of present neglect — ask the question: "Must the most populous district in the wealthiest county in our state choose to strangle these unfortunate children with the strings of a very tight purse?"

The board can, if it wishes, make funds available to set up an adequate program through a small over-ride tax. The basic research is completed; the need has been established. Apparently not established, in the opinion of the many parents who have silently watched the board in meetings these past few weeks, is the inclination of that board to use their funding power as it was intended —for the proper education of San Rafael's educationally handicapped children.

Thanks Given In Help With Search

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people who recently helped in the search for our son, Michael, and his friend, Robert Porteous, when they were snowbound in the American River area. The Novato police were very kind and helpful and kept us informed at all times.

Our special thanks go to Stewart Thompson and his son, Chris, from Santa Rosa who helped the entire week and to David Donzel of Belvedere who also helped for three days and who brought the young men back to Novato while several other men remained in the area to look for our pick-up truck. Our thanks go also to the McGinniss brothers, James and Francis, also of Belvedere, and their brothers-in-law, Kim Mitchell and Bill Kerr. We would have been much longer getting our pick-up out of the snowy area if it had not been for the help of these men and the use of their heavy equipment. They stayed in another day after the boys had been rescued.

Our thanks also to a gentleman known only as "Ted" from the Ignacio area who loaned his cabin in the search area and who also assisted in the search. We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors in Novato who called and came by during this time.

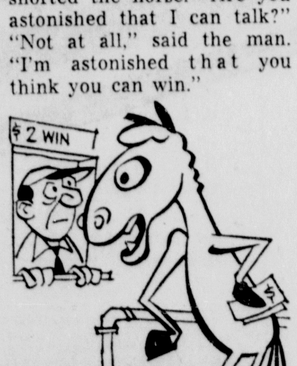

Our son, Michael, and his wife, Janet, who live in Santa Rosa, are deeply grateful to the many people in the Novato area and in the search areas who were helping in this trying time.

A MAN SELLING two-dollar tickets at the Aqueduct horse racing track registered considerable surprise when a horse stepped up to the window and asked to bet on himself. "What's the matter," snorted the horse. "Are you astonished that I can talk?" "Not at all," said the man. "I'm astonished that you think you can win."

A MILE IS just about the distance that once separated Playwright Russel Crouse from an old curmudgeon who lived at the edge of a lake. Between plays, the versatile Crouse had taken to wool raising. He was trudging to market with a cartful when he noticed that the curmudgeon's lake had frozen over, and calculated he could save over a mile by heading straight across the glassy surface.

When he was halfway across, the curmudgeon came charging from his den and hollered, "Get back there, young man! You ain't going to pull the wool over my ice."

Just Who Is Being Unfair In Senate Investigation Of Bobby Baker Case?

WASHINGTON—At a public session of the Senate Rules Committee, a recent column of mine on the committee's handling of the Robert G. (Bobby) Baker case was sharply criticized as unfair.

I had written that the rules committee had been showing positive genius in finding ways not to investigate the ramified operations of Baker when he used his powerful position as secretary to the Senate majority for his personal gain.

I SHOULD LIKE to set out the facts just as faithfully as I can—and leave the verdict to the reader:

Sen. B. Everett Jordan (D-N. C.), committee chairman, has frequently stated that his committee "is not investigating senators."

The chief counsel, Lennox McLendon, has stated that the reason senators are not being questioned is that the committee is powerless to do so under the Senate's authorizing resolution.

Senator Jordan has thus far turned aside the proposal made by Sen. Clifford Case (R-N. J.) that all senators be asked about any dealings with Baker on the ground that such a procedure "would be an insult to a senator."

CHAIRMAN JORDAN'S contention that his committee cannot question senators must stand or fall on the argument that the committee is stopped from doing so because the Senate passed too narrow a resolution.

Here is the core of the resolution: "That the committee on rules is directed to make a study and investigation with respect to any financial or business interests or activities of any officer or employee or former officer or employee of the Senate."

Jordan and counsel McLendon say that since senators are not mentioned in the resolution they can't be questioned.

I would like to point out that, in tracing part of the trails which Baker left behind him, the committee has questioned insurance executives, bankers, corporation officials and real estate operators. But the Senate resolution doesn't mention insurance executives, bankers, corporation officials or real estate operators.

THE RESOLUTION simply says that the committee shall investigate the "activities" of present or past "employees" of the Senate.

When Mr. Baker's trail leads to closed doors, is there anything in the committee's mandate which says it shall not open those doors—even senators' doors?

Furthermore, a strong case can be made that senators are themselves "employees" of the Senate. The committee counsel says no, but there is a better qualified witness who says yes. He says:

"I wish to inform the Senate that, if we did not know it before, we are all employees of the U. S. Senate. Therefore the original resolution adopted by the Senate encompasses all that the senator from Delaware (John J. Williams, who was proposing to spell out the resolution more precisely) has said."

THIS WITNESS is the Democratic majority leader of the United States Senate, Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, who made the foregoing statement on Feb. 4, 1964.

The proposal of Sens. John B. Williams (D-Miss.) and Case to include senators expressly in the Baker investigation might be useful to make it explicit, but I contend it is unnecessary unless this is the only way to get the rules committee to do its work.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Demos Seek Record In Election Fund

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Democratic fund raisers are shooting for two record-setting goals by the end of this month.

One—to raise three to four million dollars for the presidential campaign chest. This total is approximately one-third of the 12 million dollars Democratic National Committee strategists figure will be needed for the White House race.

Second goal is staging the first one-million-dollar fund-raising dinner by either party. This is to take place in New York on May 28.

THIS AFFAIR IS the second of two that are to produce the three to four million dollars in campaign funds. The first is to be in Washington on May 26, and the aim is to make it the biggest ever held there. Sidney Saloman, Missouri businessman, will preside in Washington; Arthur Krim, motion picture executive, in New York.

Both events will be combination $1,000-a-plate dinners and $100-a-ticket galas. Separate tickets have to be bought for the dinners and the galas; in other words, to attend both it will cost $1,100 or $2,200 for a couple.

President Lyndon B. Johnson will be the main attraction at the dinners; well-known movie and TV personalities at the galas. Featuring the Washington show will be Brigitte Bardot and Gregory Peck. The performer contingent at the New York gala will be headed by Johnny Carson.

A carefully compiled alphabetic list of hundreds of businesses, labor unions and organizations of all kinds and the names of their consequential officials is a principal adjunct in this hard-sell solicitation. Known among Democratic leaders as the "master list," it is extensively used for fund-raising affairs.

Illustrative of the nature, range and scope of this carefully guarded list of contributor prospects are the following random samplings:

LABOR UNIONS — AFL-CIO; United Auto Workers; Building and Construction Trades Dept., AFL-CIO; Communications Workers; Electrical Workers; Government Employees; Ladies' Garment Workers; Longshoremen; Machinists; United Mine Workers; Postal Clerks; Steel Workers.

AGRICULTURE — American Farm Bureau Federation; National Grange; various other national and sectional farm organizations.

TRADE ASSOCIATIONS— American Bakers; American Medical Assn.; Aerospace Industries; Automobile Dealers; Bicycle Manufacturers; U. S. Brewers; American Cattlemen; U. S. Chamber of Commerce; Cotton Manufacturers Institute; Distilled Spirits Institute; National Electrical Contractors; National Food Brokers; Grain and Feed Dealers; Investment Bankers; Meat Institute; National Assn. of Manufacturers; American Paper and Pulp; American Petroleum Institute.

Woman Protests Taxing Elderly; Spider, Horse, Bird On The Scene

WE RECEIVED A telephone call the other day from a little old lady in Sausalito named Winona Pierce, who said, "I have a fighting spirit."

We told her we admired people with such a spirit, and asked what she was fighting now. "Taxes," she said.

She said she lives in a single-family dwelling, and that her property was fair market valued at $17,500 one day and $27,500 the next day. Or, in plain words, she said, she estimates this means $200 per year more in taxes. Now, she added, this is hard on elderly people and also on young couples with babies.

We said that we understood and sympathized but said that when she sells her house she can probably get a good price.

LITTLE OLD houses don't sell for much, she said, "and, anyway, I don't want to sell. I want to live here and die here." Miss Pierce believes there should be some special dispensation for people such as she and we said we agreed.

"I WENT DOWN to the IDESST Hall to protest with a steady stream of others," Miss Pierce said, but it was not a general protest but a one-by-one sort of thing. Saying good-by, we told Miss Pierce we would try to get her message across, and she said she will keep fighting.

All is not taxes. There is annexation, incorporation, nesting and heifers.

MAYBELLE SPECKMANN says she has a nesting bird at her house with a red head. The bird is building a nest of twigs and redwood bark in a vine outside her window. This is important.

We have a very small spider who lives in our office restroom who just sits in the corner near the ceiling all day. When you blow air at him he scrunches up. He doesn't seem to have any friends and no web. He is all alone.

Moira O'Connor claims this has been a tough year to find news writers at Tamalpais High, and she may have to return next year from College of Marin to help edit.

EVERY YEAR about this time Becky Matson hikes out of the redwoods and says, "Let's get up a big Fourth of July parade for Mill Valley." No sponsors, no proceeds, just a good old-fashioned parade where people march down the street to the beat of the drum and dogs run alongside barking. And we always say, "Huzzah," and we'll join you. But the parade never materializes because we're not organized.

We have learned that Marsha Owen has a large white German shepherd named Leland Valhalla Stanford, and Paul and Della de Moss have a black Persian cat named Neko-Chan, who drinks milk on the rocks at the Seven Seas in Sausalito.

Bernard, the St. Bernard of Tiburon, dropped by for a short visit the other day, got inside the door and immediately flaked out on the floor.

"THIS IS THE only kind of dog I know of that when you take him for a walk, you get him all ready, get him outside the door and he sits down for a rest," said Audrey Doughty, Bernard's owner.

In the horse line, we learn the scientific fact that horses have heart troubles, too. Rocky Buster, an 8-year-old quarter horse owned by Doug Stone, had both heart trouble and colic not long ago. He lives in Fairfax. He is making a comeback, however, said Stone.

It seems that when George Wheelwright's bulls, Notability and Onus, were coming over the bounding seas from England, they were accompanied by three heifers, Prunella, Linda and Plum. And, according to Tom Patton, foreman, while being trucked from Jersey to Marin, another heifer was born in Indiana. This one is unnamed as yet, said Patton.

ART BUCHWALD

America's Billion-Dollar Lawns Started By Pilgrim Sam Snodgrass

WASHINGTON—The Commerce Department just revealed that Americans spend 1.5 billion dollars on their lawns. The figure isn't hard to believe if you own a lawn. As a matter of fact it's quite low. All you have to do is buy a few feet of sod, some fertilizer, some grass seed, a hose, and an electric lawnmower, and you've blown a million right there.

No one is quite sure who was the first one to start the lawn competition in America. It is rumored that it was a Pilgrim named San Snodgrass who was responsible for the whole thing.

ONE MORNING the Pilgrims got up and found Sam out front sprinkling seeds on the ground.

"What art thou doing, Sam?" his neighbors asked.

"Planting grass."

"But why? Canst thou eat it?"

"No, neighbor, but it will give me something to cut in the summertime."

The Pilgrim men, who rarely laughed, made merry of Sam. But when spring came and Sam's lawn started to grow, the wives of the other Pilgrims became very upset.

"LOOK, THOU, at Brother Snodgrass's lawn," they said to their husbands. "It is verily a shame that we have nothing but dirt in front of our houses."

The other Pilgrim men were sore, but there wasn't much they could do about it. So they all started planting grass in front of their houses. Pretty soon they were so busy working on their lawns they forgot to plant any crops and when winter came they almost starved to death.

But this did not dismay the Pilgrim wives. When spring came, they insisted that their husbands work on their lawns again.

"LOOK THEE at Sam, with nary a weed in his yard," they grumbled.

"Women," the husbands cried, "we must plant crops instead."

"Better to starve," the women replied, "than to have an unkempt lawn."

And so the next winter all the Pilgrims died. But the tradition of having a neat lawn lived on in the New World and America became a great nation because the wives of its men always thought the grass was greener on the other side of the hedge.

TODAY A MAN is judged by the lawn he keeps. If it is trim and green and looks like a carpet, he is a loyal American. If it grows tall, has weeds, and straggles over on the sidewalk, he is a Communist.

And so once again this spring, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, American men, egged on by their wives, are toiling in their front yards, devoting their strength, their lives, and their waking moments, not to mention 1.5 billion dollars a year, to keep up with their neighbors' lawns.

Opening lead — ♠ Q

You win the first trick with the king of spades and count eight tricks in top cards. Should you try for the ninth trick in hearts or diamonds?

ONE POSSIBILITY

One play is to give up an early diamond trick and then take dummy's top diamonds. Dummy's last diamond will be good if each opponent started with three diamonds.

The other play is to lead a heart from your hand. If West has the ace of hearts you can win a trick with dummy's king.

As soon as the opponents take one trick, they will force out your last spade stopper. If you then give them another trick, they will defeat the contract with the rest of the spades.

SIMPLE PROBABILITY

As Kaplan poins out, the odds are against an even break in diamonds, but they are even that West has the ace of hearts. Therefore it is better to lead a heart than to try for a diamond trick.

Still, what's the hurry? Take your four club tricks first.

An opponent may run into real or imaginary trouble if forced to discard.

In this case West must find three discards on the clubs. If West discards a diamond, the odds change back in favor of setting up a diamond trick. If West discards a couple of hearts, you can develop a heart trick even though the ace is unfavorably located. And if West discards three spades (an unlikely choice in actual play) you might still make the contract by guessing what he is doing.

QUESTION

You have opened with 1 NT and partner has bid two hearts. It is once more up to you, holding:

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three hearts.

This shows four-card trump support and about 18 points in support of hearts. You would pass with only 16 points or with mediocre support for hearts.

Partner can go on to game with about six points in high cards or good distribution; and he can pass safely if he has a bad hand with just a long heart suit.

Supervisorial Race Warming Up With 'Conflict' Claims

Banker Byron W. Leydecker, supervisor in the First District (San Rafael and Las Gallinas Valley area) faces his first big political test on June 2.

He comes up against San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis, an insurance broker, and Orlando Conti, a San Rafael plumber.

The contest, which started out quietly, is rapidly shaping up into a verbal slugfest. Mayor McInnis recently suggested that Supervisor Leydecker is involved in a conflict of interest.

Leydecker replied that the McInnis statement is a fabrication. And the battle is on.

Here is some background material on the three campaigners:

BYRON W. LEYDECKER

BYRON W. LEYDECKER, 37, president of Redwood National Bank in San Rafael, was appointed to the board of supervisors last July by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as successor to the late Walter R. Castro.

A native of Oakland, he attended Stanford University and won his bachelor's degree in economics in 1950. He served with the Army and was recalled into service after graduation.

He joined Crocker-Anglo Bank in 1953, became assistant manager at the Chico branch in 1954, then assistant vice president and manager for Crocker Anglo Bank in San Rafael from 1958 to 1961. He was sent briefly to the Stockton branch in 1961 as vice president and manager, then returned to head the new Redwood National Bank in San Rafael, which opened in 1962.

Leydecker was chairman of the Marin United Crusade in 1961 until his transfer and president of the Marin United Fund in 1963. He is a director of Sunny Hills and the Marin Development Assn., and a trustee of San Rafael Military Academy. He has also been affiliated with the Marin County Humane Society, Redwood Empire Assn., and Marin Music Chest.

He is campaigning on his "action program of defining the goals of the people of Marin and developing the means of implementing them."

He wants to see the county move forward and yet retain its "incomparable character."

Among projects he has pushed as supervisor, Leydecker lists these:

1. The Stanford Research Institute study, intended to help determine ways the tax burden may be shifted from the retail merchant and home owner.

2. Forming a group to study how multiple governmental units may be functionally consolidated so that costs to taxpayers may be reduced and services improved.

3. Revising supervisors' agenda procedures to eliminate time-consuming details.

4. Initiating a series of meetings between county department heads and citizens' organizations "to make government more responsive to citizens' needs."

Leydecker favors strengthening the county administrator's office so that it may handle and delegate routine matters more efficiently. He supports the county program to promote training of racial minorities. One of the purposes is to help people get off welfare and become self-sufficient, says Leydecker.

He also seeks a more equitable tax base to relieve the property tax burden. He says other sources of revenue should be considered, such as sharing in the state income tax.

On McInnis "conflict of interest" accusation, Leydecker had this to say:

"McInnis's charges are absolutely false and so utterly ridiculous as to be beyond the realm of credibility . . . if he believes them, he should present his facts to the county grand jury . . .

"If he does not present his charges to the jury, and I'm certain that he will not for there is not one iota of truth in them, then he should apologize to the voters of the first district for this gross insult to their intelligence."

Leydecker likes the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed Civic Center and would continue construction of the next phase.

He lives with his wife and their three children at 12 Oakmont Court , San Rafael.

ORLANDO CONTI

ORLANDO CONTI, 52, plumbing contractor, has been a San Rafael planning commissioner for six years.

Born and reared in San Francisco he operated his plumbing business on Lombard Street before moving to San Rafael 15 years ago.

In 1957, he ran for San Rafael mayor, and in 1958 against Supervisor Walter R. Castro. After his defeat in the supervisors race, the San Rafael City Council appointed him to the San Rafael Planning Commission.

Conti says he will retire in three years and is ready to devote fulltime to the job of supervisor. He will accept no campaign contributions from any individual or group and is "completely independent," owing allegiance to no one except the people of the district.

Conti asserts the first district's problems have been "ignored long enough," and "a man of action, not just words" is needed on the board.

He would fight for more outdoor living and sports resources including parks and playgrounds, better road repair and highway access to the Civic Center, fencing of drainage ditches to protect children, completion of the Civic Center "instead of the confusion of two different county office buildings," and some program for the present controversial filling of the bay.

Conti calls for good clean industries, more support for the planning department to strengthen subdivision standards and zoning, more and better schools, and coordination of individuals and groups with constructive ideas.

A good master plan is essential, but even more important are ordinances and zoning laws to back it up, Conti asserts. Key men such as the planning director should be paid good salaries so that top men can be retained. He says the planning department should have more police power.

Every supervisor, says Conti, should attend all meetings of community services district boards in his area, in addition to the meetings of the supervisors.

The only real answer to coordinated planning for the county is a City and County of Marin because "you cannot get 10 different cities to think alike," declares Conti.

"I want to see a new day for Marin — more industry, more jobs, more building, more business," he added. "I want to fight for you, your right to direct representation without bottlenecks by political pressure groups."

He and his wife live at 337 C Street, San Rafael. He is the father of three and has three grandchildren. Conti is active in Little League and is on the conservation committee of the Marin Rod and Gun Club.

JOHN F. McINNIS, 50, on the San Rafael City Council for 11 years, the last seven as mayor, operates an insurance agency in San Rafael.

A native of Tacoma, Wash., he went to sea as a boy of 15 and worked on merchant ships and as engineer on a tow boat to finance his schooling.

He attended Washington State College and University of Washington, winning his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1937. McInnis then moved to San Francisco to enter the insurance field.

During World War II, he served three years in the Navy Reserve. He moved to San Rafael in 1948 and established his own insurance agency in 1950.

An accomplished public speaker, McInnis won an international speaking contest in 1941 as a member of the Toastmasters Club in San Francisco.

He became a city councilman is 1953, and four years later, he defeated incumbent Edward W. Culver for the post of mayor.

McInnis said his 11 years as councilman and mayor has given him the experience to qualify him for the position of supervisor.

"As chairman of various committees of city representatives, I have worked closely with Marin County officials—and city and county officials of the entire Bay Area—to successfully develop new programs to meet our common problems," he said.

As a representative of the cities, McInnis worked with the supervisors in setting up the "urban thoroughfare" policy by which the county uses a part of the gasoline funds on roads passing through cities.

He has been a leader in the Marin Council of Mayors and in founding the Assn. of Bay Area Governments. He served as president of ABAG and is on the Governor's Planning Advisory Committee and the Bay Area Transportation Study Commission. He succeeded in bringing eight Bay Area counties to work together on a regional plan for development.

JOHN F. McINNIS

As mayor of San Rafael he cites these accomplishments:

Offstreet parking lots including a lot for all-day parking, major roads rebuilt, drainage construction begun, a pumping station built for lowland areas, two firehouses built and more coming, library doubled, and land purchased for a new city hall.

McInnis says all of this was accomplished with taxes reduced and another four or five cent tax reduction expected for the coming year. "I feel I can ask for voter support for me as supervisor on the solid basis of proven constructive accomplishments in government."

He is not an admirer of Frank Lloyd Wright's architectural designs but would support continuing the present style of the Civic Center. He finds it "striking," but notes some technical flaws and would like to see the next stage "a little more practical."

He is active in Masonic orders including Islam Temple of the Shrine, and in the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce and Optomist Club.

McInnis and his wife, son and daughter, live at 36 Dunfries Terrace, San Rafael.

In a recent debate McInnis questioned the propriety of spending county funds for a Stanford Research Institute study on the feasibility of bringing industry and other economic activity to Marin. McInnis said the Draper Companies had already planned to have the study made for their own purposes, when the county supervisors voted to finance it.

The mayor noted that the manager of Draper Companies is an old friend of Leydecker's and a member of the board of Redwood National Bank. He declared that Leydecker's approach to Rat Island off China Camp is "also a suspect one." The mayor suggested a conflict of interest.

This brought Leydecker's denial and a challenge to McInnis to substantiate the accusations or publicly recant them.

Mayor McInnis also disagrees sharply with Leydecker on the county's program to help retrain Marin's minority groups for employment. McInnis called it "a complete waste of taxpayer's money." He said any such program should have been done through county education channels.

San Rafael Bank Will Try Out New Idea–A Hostess To Guide Patrons

San Rafael BANK —K2182 p12

Bank of America's San Rafael office is one of a few branches chosen to try out an entirely new service — having a hostess in the lobby. And her duties will be much more extensive than making sure the ball pointed pens have full ink cartridges.

The young lady to fill this post is Mrs. Helen Crosby, who has already seen service as a teller and in the commercial loan department, and has a general knowledge of other bank functions to be able to answer questions or direct you to someone who can. Since particular individuals are usually in charge of certain services, she'll tell you just whom to see about an automobile loan, stopping payment on check, getting a letter of credit for 500 pounds sterling or a domestic money order without wandering from window to window. Make your problems known to her.

JOHNSON MEAT CO., handicapped by adverse opinion insofar as any expansion of its facilities on Smith Ranch Road is concerned, will move to Sonoma probably in July, according to Walt F. Brady. The former Sonoma Meat Co. plant has been purchased, offering some much needed extra space—and apparently no objection to its occupancy.

CONSTRUCTION of Dreyer-Wilson's new Mission - Union Building at 305 Mission Street, San Rafael has gotten under way, with Ed Burgar as the contractor. Completion is expected by the first of August. Marin Counseling Service, now 749 B Street, is the first lessee to sign for space.

EDGAR J. GARBARINI of Kentfield has been elected to the board of directors of Bechtel Corp. As a vice president he is in charge of steam and nuclear power and industrial plant engineering and construction. Garbarini has been with Bechtel for 25 years.

Popular Guessing Game Is Where Tax Cut Went

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—Economists are playing a very puzzling guessing game these days, trying to figure out what consumers are doing with their tax cut money.

It is more than two months since an extra 800 million dollars a month was suddenly added to family buying power. Yet, so far, this beggest tax cut in history has had no discernible impact on the economy.

Some analysts were looking for an immediate surge in spending, and thus in retail sales. But most thought that people would take their time in figuring out what to do with their windfalls. They expected to see the tax cut reflected in other figures.

But so far it isn't obvious anywhere. Certainly not in store sales, or in the savings figures, either.

Many top economists in Washington frankly admit that they are baffled.

To begin with, they note that not everyone has been enjoying the full reduction since March 5, the date new withholding rates were supposed to begin. Some people are paid every two weeks — others monthly. But it's conceded that the nation's big employers, with computerized accounting systems, were able to get the savings out at once.

Another explanation you hear is that people used some of the savings to pay for some of the 1.2 billion dollars in American Telephone stock just going on the market. But this could only have been a very limited outlet at best.

Perhaps 70 million dollars of the money can be accounted for in March in repayment of debt by consumers.

But this is as far as the experts can go with any certainty. When it comes to accounting for the bulk of the tax cut, they start playing the guessing game.

Some are guessing that a lot of people are putting their extra dollars into the stock market, thus accounting for its recent new highs. But this implies that consumers as a whole are net buyers from such institutions as pension funds, mutual funds and such.

Another explanation is that the tax-cut cash is going into savings accounts — only this can't be seen because there was a lot of churning in this area in April because that's when tax payments were due. In other words, it's being said that maybe people didn't have to draw down savings so much last month because the tax-cut money was handy. The scattered figures in, so far, aren't especially convincing.

Still another guess: That many people are over-withholding on their taxes—asking their employers to take out more than the 14 per cent required by law. This is supposed to minimize the tax bite come next April 15.

Many financial analysts refuse even to try to guess. They think the game will be over in a few months when the consumer loosens up and starts spending those tax-cut dollars. Some feel that the picture won't be really clear until figures for the full year 1964 are in. Until then, your guess may be as good as anyone's.

Summer Slowup May Intensify Market Lethargy

NEW YORK (UPI)—Thomson & McKinnon expresses concern that if the present listlessness of the market continues for an extended time it is "bound to have bearish implications if it runs headlong into the usual business slack of the summer months." Professional traders, the brokerage firm adds, are growing impatient for the "shakeout" they feel may be needed before the market can resume its climb upward.

Reynolds & Co. feels the stock market is going through a consolidation period which will result in another move toward new heights. Estimated earnings of $45 a share for the Dow-Jones industrial average this year, Reynolds says, certainly seem capable of supporting a further advance. It recommends an "aggressive approach" by investors.

Clark, Dodge & Co. says that despite the drop in tobacco stocks on news that cigarette sales turned lower after their rally from the unfavorable government report on smoking it still is taking a "constructive" approach to the industry. "Technically speaking," it says, "these stocks are shaking off their cobwebs and appear to be ready to turn in a better-than-average market performance in the period ahead."

Stocks Close Lower, Active Trading Late

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed lower today. Trading was active toward the end.

Losses by assorted blue chips upset the averages.

The list had a slightly higher tone in the morning but later became irregular and then began to move lower on average.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.9 million shares compared with 5.06 million Friday.

An assortment of the blue chips weakened in the afternoon and put the averages on the downside despite gains by airlines, aerospace issues and an assortment from other groups.

Du Pont erased an early gain and showed a 2-point less. Sears Robuck and Air Reduction were down more than a point each.

American Telephone held firm and U.S. Steel nudged higher.

IBM's new, split stock overcame an early loss and showed a net gain exceeding 3 points. Xerox rose more than 4, Boeing more than a point, Control Data a point.

Texas Gulf Sulphur looked like the most active stock again and was up about 2.

U.S. Smelting dropped 3 points.

Pan American World Airways, up about 2, paced a recovery by airlines.

Zenith lost 2 points and Radio Corp. a fraction in a mixed electronics section.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds were mixed.

Fruit Firm Reports Earnings Hit Record

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Di Giorgio Fruit Corp. and its affiliates have reported record earning for the first three months of 1964.

Pre-tax earnings thus far this year were reported at $1,357,371, compared to $1,222,649 for the first quarter of 1963. Net sales for the same period were at 27.9 million dollars compared to 25.2 million dollars for 1963.

Conduit Price Rises

OAKLAND — Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. has increased prices of aluminum rigid conduit approximately three and one-half per cent.

Speculators Still Hurrying To Tap Strikes

NEW YORK (UPI)—For all his twentieth century sophistication, the average investor apparently is as subject as ever to bursts of Klondike fever.

The sourdough prospector has all but disappeared from the scene, his mule replaced by jeeps and helicopters, his pick and pan by the geiger counter, drill and exotic chemical analysis equipment.

But the feverish investor who haunted the assay offices and stormed the brokerage houses during the latter part of the 19th century seems to be with us still.

The latest started with the Texas Gulf Sulphur Co. zinc-copper-silver strike in the Timmins area of Ontario. There was a land boom. Then it spilled over into the stock market. Before a month, even a large magazine publishing company was in the act.

This week, shares of Calumet & Hecla were tossed into the spotlight on news of two new copper mines in Michigan. On May 13, some 575,300 Calumet shares were traded (against 469,500 shares in all of 1,963) on top of the previous day's equally impressive 401,000 shares.

But the "strike" that caused it all, according to Calumet's own figures, will add but 5,000 to 7,500 tons of copper annually to the company's output. If Calumet could turn a profit of three cents per pound and sold all its new copper, that's only about 22 cents per share per year.

Dixie, the hamster, looks like a traffic-weary motorist as he poses for his portrait in child's sandal at Independent-Journal photographer Jim Kean's San Rafael home. The Keans were baby-sitting Dixie for the neighboring Norman Colteaux family where Dixie's mate hamster is expecting. Dixie has to be kept away because papa hamsters sometimes eat their babies.

Witness May Stall Hospital Hearing

Legal entanglements may delay calling of witnesses in the hearing requested by Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman of San Francisco on the refusal of the Marin Hospital District board to grant him surgical privileges at the hospital.

A 'pilot hearing" is scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. tomorrow in the hospital's annex building. The hearings are scheduled to resume on June 8.

The first hearing was called to test the subpoena powers of the hospital district board and the hearing officer, John D. McDonough, acting dean of Stanford University law school.

Harold F. Riede, attorney for the district, said he has subpoenaed Dr. Leonard Rosenman, chief of staff at Mount Zion Hospital in San Francisco at the time Ascherman's privileges at that hospital were not renewed, to appear at tomorrow's hearing.

Rosenman's appearance would be used as a test of the subpoena powers of the board, Riede said. His attorneys have indicated they are unwilling for him to appear as he has been named in a six million dollar lawsuit filed in San Francisco by Ascherman.

If Rosenman does not appear or refuses to testify, Riede said he would petition Marin County superior court to cite him to appear before the court and give cause why he should not appear.

Riede said the hospital district act does not give subpoena powers to the board or the board's hearing officer. However, a state supreme court ruling provides that a doctor who has been denied staff privileges shall have a hearing before the board which is given quasi-judicial powers.

If the ruling giving the board subpoena powers is appealed to a higher court, Riede said that the June 8 date for hearings to continue on a regular basis may have to be delayed.

Ascherman, in a separate action by the board, was granted permission to deliver the baby of Mrs. Joyce E. Conway of 30 La Brea Way, San Rafael, which is expected any day. The board's approval came after Mrs. Conway threatened to deliver the baby herself.

Ascherman claims he was "mysteriously" dropped by four San Francisco hospitals after he publicly denounced the American society of internal medicine as a lobbying group for the American Medical Assn. against the government's Medicare program.

Polio-Stricken Mother Sees Boys Confirmed

Mrs. Marie Mullan took her first trip outside a hospital or ambulance in nearly five years yesterday to attend the confirmation of her two sons at St. Vincent's School for Boys in San Rafael.

"I don't want anything like an ambulance to mar the children's day," she said.

She was among parents of 60 boys who were confirmed, but was the only one who watched the ceremony from a specially equipped wheelchair with a "pneumo belt" around her chest to help her breath.

Mrs. Mullan is a polio victim who has been a total care patient at Laguna Honda Home since September, 1959, after a sudden attack of acute spinobulbar polio which completely paralyzed her.

She watched happily as her boys, Kevin, 12, and Richard, 11, were confirmed by Bishop Merlin Guilfoyle, Auxiliary Archbishop of San Francisco. At her side were her daughter, Lauren Marie, 10; her mother, Mrs. Emily Gibson of San Francisco, and medical attendants.

D. V. Nicholson, executive director of the San Francisco chapter of the National Foundation of the March of Dimes, arranged for the compact bus which took Mrs. Mullan to St. Vincent's.

The annual March of Dimes fund campaign made it possible for her rehabilitation since she was stricken and her trip to the school to witness what she called "a joyful occasion for everyone."

LBJ Space Fund Request Slashed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Appropriations Committee today ordered a 245 million dollar cut in President Lyndon B. Johnson's proposed 5.4 billion dollar budget for the U.S. space program.

The slash was the biggest ordered by the committee out of a total of 925 million dollars it cut from Johnson's proposed budgets for 25 independent government agencies. Major cuts also were recommended for the civilian defense and urban renewal programs.

The committee acted at the advice of a subcommittee headed by Rep. Albert Thomas (D-Tex.). The cut in the space agency program centered in research and development contracts with industry, as well as a 36 million dollar reduction in funds for construction of new space facilities.

Investment specialist David E. Hartley will address a breakfast meeting of the Marin County Real Estate Board at 8 a.m. tomorrow at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael.

Shops Center Guard Wounds Self In Leg

A 23-year-old Hamilton Air Force Base airman accidentally shot himself in the right leg at 9:28 a.m. yesterday while working as a security guard at the new Emporium department store in the Northgate Shopping Center.

Jose P. Velez Jr., 23, of Headquarters Squadron, 78th Combat Support Group, was in good condition at the base hospital today after receiving emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital. No bone was broken.

The .38 caliber bullet went through a holster into his leg, traveled straight down and on top of his instep.

Velez told officers he stumbled and grabbed the weapon to prevent it from falling and discharging, but it went off as he was doing so.

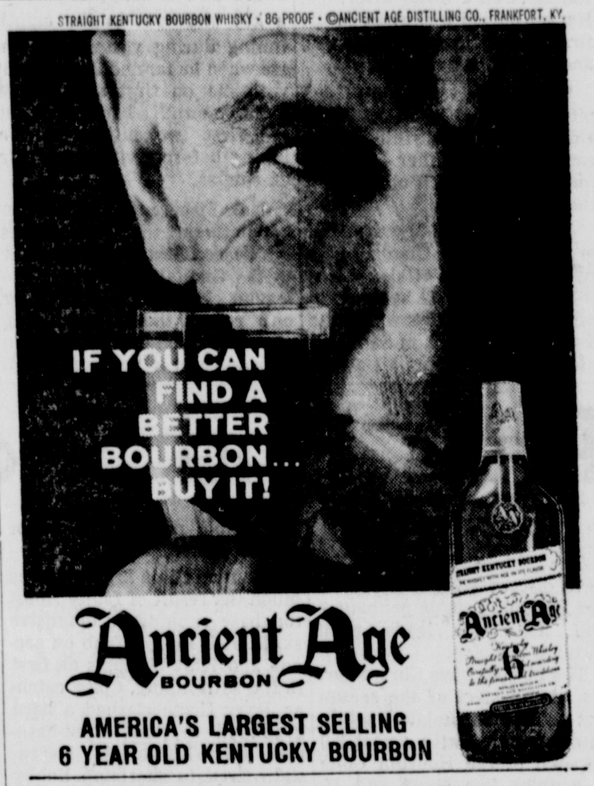

He is employed by Associate Security Agency of San Rafael in the off-duty job.

15 Take Examinations For Police Positions

Fifteen candidates for the San Rafael Police Department took oral and agility examinations Saturday, Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa reported.

When test results are compiled, successful candidates will be placed on the eligibility list, Chief Chiesa said. A new eligibility list has to be established because the former list is depleted, he said.

Mountain Play Well Attended Despite Clouds

Between 2,500 and 3,000 people rode or walked to Cushing Memorial Theater on the slope of Mount Tamalpais yesterday to watch the revival of "Flamenca," Dan Totheroh's play set in the Pyrenees mountains.

The play was well received by the crowd, thinned by Saturday's storm and yesterday morning's threatening weather. Totheroh said the dress rehearsal of the show on Saturday was rained out completely, but his cast of almost 150 came through smoothly yesterday despite this handicap.

"Flamenca," first produced on the mountain in 1928, features Phyllis Courtney of Ross in the title role, with Al Flower of San Rafael as her lover. It will be repeated next Sunday at 2 p.m.

Postmaster On Mend

Harry M. Overly, Novato postmaster, was reported improving today at Novato General Hospital where he was taken after suffering a heart attack at the post office on Friday afternoon. Overly lives at 724 Lamont Avenue, Novato.

Terra Linda Fund Fete, Swim Show Rained Out

Terra Linda High School's aquacade, rained out Saturday night, has been rescheduled for 8:30 p.m. today in the high school pool.

Gates will open at 8 p.m. and the Terra Linda School Band will play until the aquacade starts.

The aquacade was planned as a feature of the Terra Linda High School Fair Saturday, staged to raise money for scholarships.

Rain drenched the fair. Three exhibits had to be closed, but the rest of the booths kept operating despite the storm. The aquacade was called off, however.

Paul L. Jones, fair chairman, said the result was no money for scholarships, "but we'll break even with the aquacade tonight." The water show is called "Broadway Splash," with each act choreographed to a Broadway hit song.

Marin Museum Group Organizes, Sets Up Programs

Final articles of incorporation and two fall programs of the newly formed Marin Museum Assn. have been approved by the group's executive committee, according to Mrs. Richard B. Hayden of San Rafael, president.

A series of exhibits will be displayed in Marin County branches of Wells Fargo Bank starting in August with paintings on loan from the San Francisco Museum of Art.

Plans also have been made for expansion of the art appreciation program in Greenbrae School originated by the Marin unit of the Junior League of San Francisco.

Other officers in the organization are Mrs. T. J. McWatters Jr., vice president; William W. Kirsch, secretary, Mrs. Douglass Lathrop, treasurer and Mrs. Karl Zipf, assistant treasurer.

BILL FUSSELMAN

INCUMBENT
SUPERVISOR DISTRICT 2

A Well Trained Public Official

THIS IS WHAT A CONSTITUENT SAID IN A LETTER TO ONE OF THE CANDIDATES

"I am Pledged to Bill Fusselman. When I first started in San Anselmo more than thirty years ago, Bill Fusselman was in public service. He served San Anselmo in many capacities before going on the Board of Supervisors. In my judgment, he has been completely dedicated to this community and has made public service his life's work. Many times I have disagreed with Bill, but I have always known that whatever action he has taken has been because of his judgment backed by a good mind and thought and supporting facts. I am sure there may have been times when Bill has erred, and I may have one or two in mind, but his every act has, in his judgment, been in the public interest and it is entirely probable that in nearly every case he has been correct."

BILL UNDERSTANDS the problems of County Government, because he has had the experience rarely the privilege of any one person. He has personal knowledge of most of the areas in the County and the background of these matters before the board.

BILL STANDS FOR ECONOMY in government, consistent with necessary services that must be performed.

HE STANDS FOR THE RIGHTS of the individual. He stands for completely fair treatment.

HE IS FIRM IN HIS CONVICTION that large expenditures for capital outlay, should be submitted to the electorate with full and frank explanation.

BILL IS DEPENDABLE and efficient and is a man of his word.

HE HAS NO BUSINESS INTERESTS BUT YOUR COUNTY BUSINESS. He stands ready to devote the major portion of his time to this.

Vote for William D. (Bill) Fusselman . . . A man who is truly your friend.

Rookie Herbel Fattens Giants' Pitching Corps

Manager Alvin Dark was uncommitted today on whether rookie Ron Herbel had pitched his way into the starting rotation, but there was no argument over the 1-0 shutout that he threw at the New York Mets.

"I don't know what we'll do about Herbel," Dark said yesterday after the Giants had swept a twin bill from the Mets on a pair of shutouts by the Colorado State bonus product and southpaw Bob Hendley. "a lot depends on how Billy O'Dell's arm is."

After Hendley had beaten the Mets on a three-hitter, 6-0, Herbel hurled a shutout in his first major league start, 1-0, and struck out eight.

"The slider was my best pitch," Herbel said. "I went along with everything that catcher Tom Haller signaled for. We know each other from the Coast League."

Jack Sanford (3-3) was slated to hurl for the Giants today against the Mets' Galen Cisco (1-3) The latter is seeking to wipe out the 6-4 loss which the Giants pinned on him Saturday when Jim Davenport hit a two-run homer in the 15th inning.

Herbel — using his fast ball, curve and slider— registered a key strikeout in the eighth inning during yesterday's finale when he fanned Rod Kanehl with me on first and second and two out. He had struck out the first two hitters of the inning before giving up a pair of singles.

Jack Fisher, who was a disappointment with the Giants last season, lost a heartbreaker to the Giants and Herbel. The league leaders scored their only run in the second inning on a wild pitch that let Orlando Cepeda scoot home from third.

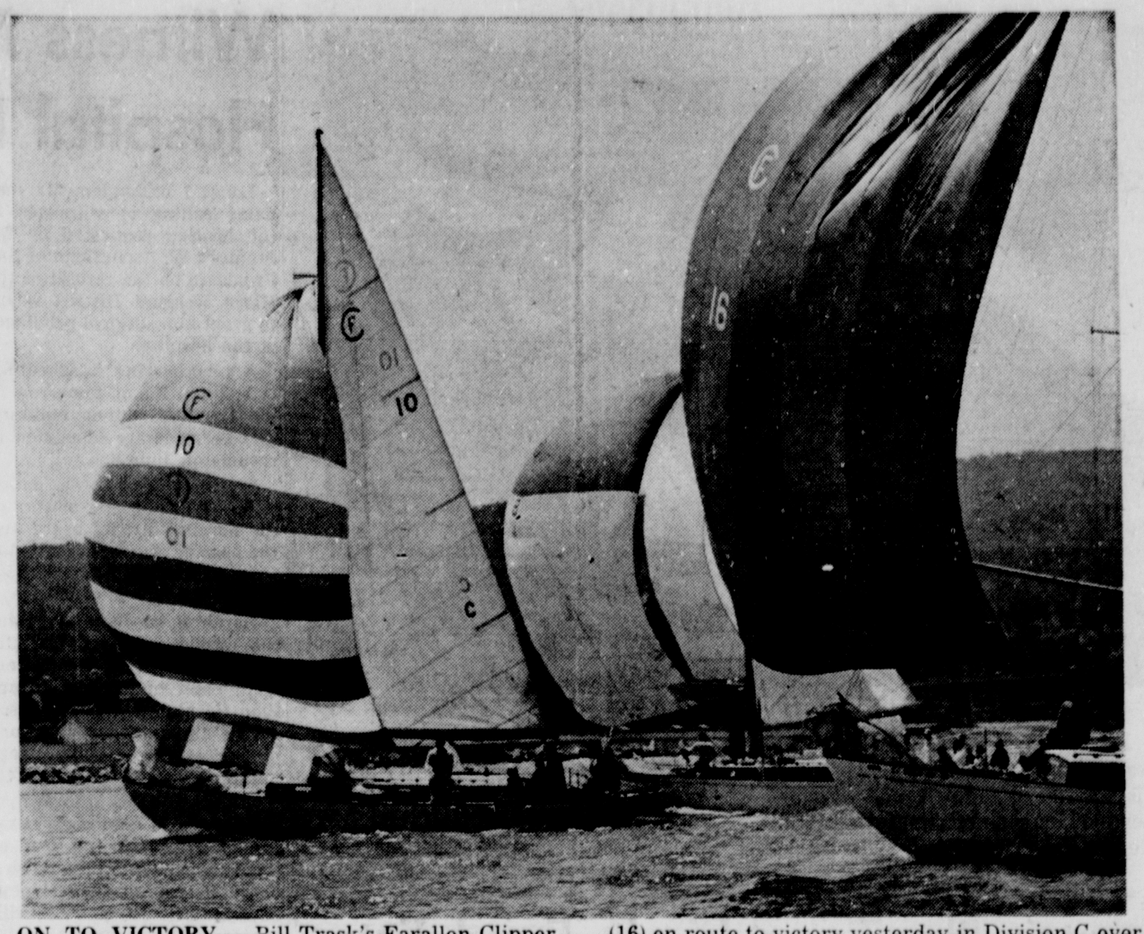

Cepeda had opened the inning with a line single past Fisher. Then the big first baseman stole second, reached third on Haller's long fly, and came across when an errant Fisher deliverey nicked the tip of catcher Jesse Gonder's mitt and rolled to the backstop.

Cepeda, who had not hit a home run since the first game of the season, teed off for a three-run blast against Al Jackson in the opener to give Hendley more than enough tallies.

Hendley, now 3-3, retired the first 13 batters to come up then was stung for a line single by Joe Christopher. He also surrendered doubles to Kanehl and Cliff Cannizzero, but only encountered serious trouble in the eighth inning. Then he retired two pinch-hitters in order with men waiting on second and third and one away.

Jackson, 3-5, gave way to one of the pinch-swingers in that inning. His replacement, knuckle-baller Tom Sturdivant, then was socked for insurance home runs by Jim Ray Hart and Willie McCovey in the Giants' half of the eighth.

BATTING AROUND: The Mets have been blanked in their last 24 innings . . . Willie Mays, now batting .411, went hitless in the first game then sat out the second until he took over centerfield for defensive purposes in the ninth inning. "I was resting him," Dark murmured whe asked about keeping Willie idle. "I sure didn't take him out because he's in a slump" . . . Mays watched the game from the bullpen . . . Fisher, sitting quietly by his locker after yesterday's setback, only said, "Herbel pitched a great game. He had a fine fast ball going"

Phils Find Short Cut To Pennant

U. P. INTERNATIONAL

The Philadelphia Phillies have discovered a short cut to the National League pennant—and the path leads right through Houston.

The Phillies gave Chris Short his second start of the season last night, and the lanky southpaw responded with a neat 2-0 dispatch of the Houston Colts in a quick two hours and 11 minutes.

Even in more of a hurry, however, was the Philadelphia infield, which in addition to producing two rather ordinary double plays completed the first triple play of the major league season.

The rare triple killing was as much the result of faulty Houston base running as defensive skill. With Rusty Staub on second and Walt Williams on first in the fifth inning, Colts' catcher Jerry Grote slashed a hard grounded to Phils' first-baseman John Herrnstein. Herrnstein fired to shortstop Bobby Wine for one, and Wine relayed to Herrstein for No. 2.

Staub, meanwhile, was wheeling for home, but Herrnstein alertly threw to catcher Gus Triandos to nip a run in the bud and provide Houston fans with their first encounter with a three-for-one special.

The San Francisco Giants received successive shutouts from Lefty Bob Hendley and righty Ron Herbel in posting a double-header sweep of the Mets, 6-0 and 1-0. In other National League action, Pittsburgh split with the Dodgers, winning the nightcap 8-3 after losing, 3-2; St. Louis roughed up Milwaukee, 7-3, before the Braves took the second game, 4-2; and the Cubs and Reds divided a pair, Chicago winning the opener, 5-4 and Cincinnati the nightcap 7-1.

Sandy Koufax picked up his first victory since May 4, but for the third straight time failed to go the route as the Dodgers won the opener on John Roseboro's sacrifice fly in the seventh. Ron Perranoski saved Koufax's third win.

Johnny Podres, however, didn't even finish the first inning for the Dodgers in the nightcap as he was shelled for four runs in two-thirds of an inning while making only his second appearance of the season. Donn Clendenon homered for the Pirates and Frank Howard stroked his 12th round-tripper for the Dodgers.

Ed Bailey, Denis Menke and Felipe Alou all hit solo home runs and Tony Cloninger scattered six hits as the Braves snapped a five-game losing streak in the nightcap. The Cards won the opener behind Curt Simmons, who won his fourth game, aided by Bill White and Tim McCarver homers.

Frank Robinson struck two round-trippers and Jim Maloney fanned eight for Cincinnati's victory in the second game.

An Ideal Regatta Finale

Henry Grandin Jr. of Ross and his Cal-32 Amorita were nosed out of first place by Ernie Van Asperen's 47-foot sloop, Alembic, in the Class B race of the All-Clubs Regatta which came to a close yesterday on San Francisco Bay.

Alembic was a seven-second victor over Amorita, the only Cal-32 in Northern California. Grandin's fine yacht was almost two minutes in front of Frank "Jake" Wosser's Kay Too. Both the first and second place winners carry the banners of the San Francisco Yacht Club.

The weather yesterday was ideal for yacht racing, far different than was the case Saturday in the first of the two-day spectacular. Saturday was dismal with rain and southerly winds that increased to near-gale force by mid afternoon. But yesterday the sun was out and the seas were smooth. A gentle westerly wind of 10 knots made it quite sublime for the Cruising Club and Division yachts. The two-day event attracted a record number of 491 participating crafts.

Yesterday only four boats raced in Cruising Club A and it was all Orient from start to finish. Tim Moseley's blue cutter was too much for the rest of the field.

UPSET WINNER

Heading Saturday's parade of class boats was the International One-Design fleet. Upset winner was Bert Damner's Dam-Near of the San Francisco Yacht Club.

Wosser, perennial champion, was shut out of the winners circle on both days of the regatta, a highly uncommon thing.

A tight battle in the Ahlberg 35 Class developed between Bob Potter's Touche and Rolf Croker's Madcap Saturday, both of the SFYC. Never more than a few boat lengths apart for the 15.7 mile course, Touche worked into a fair lead on the final windward leg and won by 26 seconds.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS:
CLASS A—Orient 2:55:37, Santana 3:02:26, Athene 3:04:37, Orion 3:08:54.
CLASS B — Alemeic 2:50:54, Amorita 2:51:01, Kay Too 2:53:30, Chrysopyle, Wild Wind, Simba, Carina, Storm, Rami, Kandu, Elizabeth F. Panacea, Vamanos, Altura II, Annie Too, Nimue, Japara, Lancer, Snowflake, Quitate.

Is Dark Messing Up The Giants? Shifting Defense Is Questioned

CONNOLLY

I've been debating on whether to string along with Buzzie Bavasi of the Dodgers who says Alvin Dark, Giant manager, "messes up things." I'm beginning to believe Buzzie has something, particularly in the case of Jimmy Davenport, executing a leap frog from third base to second base, then to shortstop. As I see it, Davenport's case is typical of Dark's management.

Willie Mays knows where he is to play. So do pitchers and catchers. But the rest of the team has been shifted so often that the team play has to suffer by it.

I'll confess batting is most important. However, it is variable; you can't count on it. A player goes to bat three or four times in a normal game. What are the odds he hits? And what is the end result in playing a player who MAY connect, particularly one who so often makes one error or more per game?

Fielding is something essential to team work. These fundamentals should be depended upon 100 per cent because, except for a bad hop or similar accidents, the fielder can handle his job. Fielders rarely have "slumps" such as hitters.

SHIFTING PLAYERS to different positions is frustrating and upsetting and the uncertainty as to whether he plays or not isn't good either. The real problem for Manager Dark to solve, and right soon, is to present a CONSTANT DEFENSE rather than a long ball HOPEFUL.

All of which brings us up to a rundown on the incoming Philadelphia club. The Phils have power, a candidate in Richie Allen for the top rookie award of the year and just about the deepest pitching staff in the National League.

Tomorrow night, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons the Phils make their initial appearance of the year at Candlestick. So far they've had a softer schedule but the action has revealed good pitching. They can

500-MILE CLASSIC

Clark, Marshman Lead Indy Field

By DALE BURGESS

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)— Jimmy Clark of Scotland, world's fastest commuter, and American Bobby Marshman will lead four former winners across the starting line for the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race on Memorial Day.

In their slipper-shaped Lotus-Fords they topped a record-smashing field in qualifications Saturday. Clark took the race day pole position at 158.8 miles per hour in a factory team car and Marshman won the second starting spot at 157.9 mph in a similar racer entered independently.

The Scot farmer hopped a plane to Mallory Park, England, and won the Guard's Trophy race there yesterday, setting a lap record on the winding course. Clark will compete in the Dutch Grand Prix next weekend before flying back to Indianapolis.

Clark, who dominated the Grand Prix international circuit last year as no driver ever did before, will be the first European to lead the 500 start since Rene Thomas of France won the pole in 1919.

STILL WAITING

Jack Brabham of Australia and England, another former Grand Prix champion, was left still waiting to make his qualifying run when the second time trial session ended yesterday. He plans to try again Saturday after a round trip to Holland to practice for the Grand Prix.

Sixteen cars qualified on the 2½-mile oval track Saturday and five made the line-up yesterday. The field so far has averaged 153.1 miles an hour. Parnelli Jones, last year's winner of the $500,000 race, captured the pole position then at a record 151.1 average.

The 33 fastest cars in the trials will start the race. The qualifications continue next Saturday and Sunday.

Marin Mermen Lag In North Coast Finals

Marin County swimmers found the competition a bit rough in the North Coast Section meet Saturday at Foothill College in Los Altos.

Best varsity performance by the Marin mermen was made by Drake High School's George Girvin who placed second in the 100-yard butterfly with a time of 56.1. In the same race, San Rafael's Tom Knopf placed sixth, only three-tenths of a second back, 56.4.

San Rafael's Jim Allen set a school record of 50.6 in the 100-yard freestyle, but it was only good for sixth place in the strong field. Palo Alto High School won the team title.

Dave Strauss of San Rafael High was the only Class B performer from Marin to place, winning second place in the 50 free (23.6) and fifth place in the 100 free (53.1).

RESET TOMORROW

Prep Track Meet Delayed By Rain

The North Coast Section Division III track and field meet, rained out Saturday, will be held tomorrow at the Santa Rosa Junior College oval.

After rainy weather forced postponement of the meet Saturday in Petaluma, coaches from the four leagues involved picked Bailey Field in Santa Rosa as the site for the meet.

Tomorrow's meet is slated to begin at 3 p.m. with both running and field events starting at the same time. Before Saturday's meet was rained out, trials in the sprints and hurdles were run and only the finals of these events will be run tomorrow.

Marin Athletic League varsity performers who qualified for the finals:

120 high hurdles—Tom Strathairn (R).
100—Bob Piro (R), Dean Lazzarini (D), Ellis Williams (T).
180 low hurdles — Straithairn (R), Ed Palmer (D), Buzz Salata (R).
220—Piro (R), Lazzarini (D, Williams (T), Bob Olson (SR), Guy Modica (R).

Marinite Places 5th In Cross-City Race

A fifth-place finished by Alan Beardall led a 20-man Marin Athletic Club entry in San Francisco's 53rd annual "Bay to Breakers" foot race yesterday.

Beardall covered the 7.6-mile race from the Ferry Building to the Cliff House in 41 minutes, 47 seconds — more than three minutes behind the winner, Jeff Fishback of Santa Clara Youth Village who was clocked at 38:32. Second was Bill Morgan of San Francisco in 38:41. One hundred twenty-four of the 128 starters finished.

Other Marin A. C. runners, their places and times, were:

R. L. Fisher, 10th, 43:36; Dr. Peter Wood, 14th, 44:04; Rich League, 17th, 44:39; Wes Hildreth, 19th, 45:11; Bill Ranney, 25th, 45:50; Carl J. Jensen, 27th, 45:55; Jim Duff, 41st, 48:31; C. H. Kerrigan Is Meadow Club Champ Again

George Kerrigan won his sixth club championship at the Meadow Club in Fairfax yesterday when he bested Ed Vest 6 and 5 in the finals of the Championship flight.

Kerrigan had a three-up lead and was only two over par in the morning round when he shot a 73 and was even par after the 27th hole of his match.

Results:

Championship flights — George Kerrigan d. Ed Vest, 6 and 5.
First flight — John Weitzel d. William Zimmerman, 20th hole.
Second flight — Larry Boech d. Maury Strom, 2 up.
Third flight — Charlie McFarland d. Dean Solinsky, 4 and 3.

Game Is Postponed

Semi-pro baseball game between Marin's Billings-Hutchison Builders and Misrack Sporting Goods, scheduled for yesterday at San Rafael's Albert Field, was postponed because of wet grounds. It will be played at a later date.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Hardy Anglers Richly Rewarded; Trollers Net Limits Of Salmon

STEVENS

As has often been stated, "Fishing is a matter of geography," and the taking of fish such as salmon is a matter of the persistence and toughness of the fishermen.

It was a cinch to get salmon the first few days of last week. All boats made the grade—some of 'em heading back to port with limits before noon. Then came the wind and rough water on Saturday. Many skippers took one look at the wild waves and reversed course to head back to their respective harbors. As is always the case, a few of the more determined boats stuck it out—and were rewarded for their efforts.

For example, the good ship Chinook, out of Berkeley Harbor, and the Lucky Day No. 2 fished between the Light Ship and the Farallones where the former netted 18 nice salmon to 18 pounds and the latter unloaded 17 to 14 pounds.

Perhaps the word got around and many of the regulars felt they had missed out. At any rate, yesterday a great many more boats passed under the Golden Gate Bridge, bound for the briny. The air waves over my Halicrafter were noisy with the voices of various skippers chortling over the good fishing being enjoyed. One skipper announced he was counting salmon in the box "in the teens!" So that's the story, and brings me to a tip to the lads who would go after stripers.

YOU MAY remember not so long ago there was a flurry of wonderful striper striving in the San Joaquin off Santa Clara Shoals and San Andreas Shoals. The trolling wasn't under what the average angler considers ideal weather and water conditions. It was windy, cool and choppy water, but many bass—some of them real lunkers, were landed. Well, I was talking with a fellow I used to fish with regularly some 20 years ago. We discussed the subject of fishing in windy, rough water. He reminded me of one particular trip we made on Ralph Starkweather's boat out of Hastings Slough. We dropped the hook about 100 yards off the northwest point of "Pete-the-Greeks" Island. It was so windy we could hardly cast; so rough that we had to hold on to a stanchion of the boat with one hand and hold our rod in the other. You probably guessed what happened: Just about every cast hooked a fish. Took us only an hour to boat 15 mighty nice stripers (Starweather also fished, and the limit was five fish in those days) from water that was the color of weak coffee.

MY FRIEND called attention to the recorded fact that some of the largest stripers ever landed were taken on windy rough days and nights. One bass caught from shore on the East Coast during a very windy day weighed in at 65 pounds, 10 ounces; another that is mentioned in the Fishermen's Digest was taken by a Ralph Gray and went 68½ pounds, also taken during gale-force wind; a 66-pounder was hooked and landed from a power boat while trolling in a full-fledged gale.

The idea seems to be that the high winds and rough water stir up a mess of natural food that attracts the large fish. Sounds logical, doesn't it?

I AM thinking right now of the deep-water hole off Kentucky Light at the edge of the Santa Clara Shoals. How about some of you trophy hunters trying that area when the wind and rough water have chased most of the other anglers away? Try baiting with a bullhead. I still maintain there is a 100-pound Roccus saxitalis hanging around somewhere.

Marin 880 Ace In Cal J.C. Final

Rich Brown, College of Marin's speedy half-miler, will be competing in the State Junior College track and field meet next Saturday after a dazzling performance last Saturday in Santa Rosa.

Brown, a sophomore at Marin, knocked almost two full seconds off his school record at the Northern California Junior College meet Saturday when he placed second with a time of 1:53.2. Last Tuesday he broke a 30-year-old Tar record when he ripped off a 1:55.1 half mile in a qualifying meet in Modesto.

The first College of Marin athlete to qualify for the state meet since 1959, Brown will be competing with the top 880 men in the state Saturday in the meet to be held on the Modesto Junior College track.

Hill Beaten In Seniors Net Semis

Bob Hill of Mill Valley lost to Bob Galloway of San Diego in the semi-finals of the 64th annual California State Senior tennis championships Saturday, and Galloway went on to win the crown with a triumph yesterday.

Hill fell to Galloway 6-2, 6-0 in the semis of the tournament which was held at Burlingame's Peninsula Tennis Club.

Yesterday Galloway defeated Norman Brooks of San Mateo in the finals of the singles division, 8-10, 7-5, 6-4, and then teamed with Don White to down Brooks and George Rice, 6-3, 6-1, in the doubles.

Marin Club Wins Championship

Weightlifters of the San Rafael MarVel Athletic Club won the team title of the Pacific Coast AAU Weightlifting Championships in San Francisco Saturday.

The Marin team, which had also won the Pacific Coast crown in 1960, edged the team from Stanford University by two points. All four of the MarVel lifters won second places to rack up the top team score.

Danny Schwed, 16, of Terra Linda, scored 490 in the 132-pound class; Ed Ghiringhelli, 19, College of Marin student, picked up a total of 590 pounds in the 165-pound class, and Ron Johnson of San Rafael scored 765 in the heavyweight class.

Two other Marin lifters competed in the tourney. Bill Goelz of Terra Linda, representing the Marine Corps Reserve, took third place in the 123-pound class after picking up 430 pounds, and Leon Center of San Rafael, competing unattached, placed third in the 148-pound class.

A CALL TO ARMS

"What's going on here?" Umpire Augie Donatelli might well be saying as arms and legs appear on all sides. Some of the limbs belong to Giants' Orlando Cepeda as he steals second base in second inning of yesterday's second game against New York Mets at Candlestick Park. Other limbs are property of Mets' Roy McMillan. Cepeda later scored game's only run in Giants' 1-0 victory. Story on page 14. (AP Wirephoto) toss four or five good pitchers at any club — Art Mahaffey, Ray Culp, Dennis Bennett, Jim Bunning, Cal McLish, and maybe the best reliefer in the circuit—Jack Baldschun.

BUNNING, FORMERLY of Detroit, once had a hummer, is now content to develop "soft stuff" due to arm trouble. Culp, of course, is the big Philly prospect. He won 14 games in 1963. He throws and thinks right-handed. Bennett, a good leftie, won 10 games last year, allowing only 103 hits in 124 innings. Mahaffey is becoming something of a trickster since he hurt his arm. So you see why pitching "picks up" the Phils. They have almost too many starters and are "loaded" with second line men as well.

The rest of the Phil club doesn't look like too much on paper. But they have a "wrecking crew" outfield in Tony Gonzales, Johnny Callison and West Covington, the vet who is now whacking the ball.

YOU HARDLY can say the Phil infield is good, in spite of the play of young Allen, a converted outfielder who has a lot to learn about infielding. Whether Bob Wine or Ruben Amaro play shortstop, the Phils are set; both are fine fielders, though neither can hit. Tony Taylor at second base is fair but pesty. Roy Sievers is heading for the last roundup but holding up well. His sub first sacker is John Hernstein, a youngster well worth watching.

Clay Dalrymple and Gus Triandos are Phil catchers. Dalrymple, relatively unpublicized, is a good hitter and an improved catcher. Gus has been a good batter both at Detroit and at Baltimore.

Marin Weightlifter To Compete In N.Y.

Northern Dancer Has One To Go For Triple Crown

BALTIMORE (AP)—"He won't jump over the Empire State Building," Jockey Bill Hartack answered when asked if there is anything Northern Dancer can't do.

"He will do anything in a race that you want him to," Hartack said.

On that, even combative Hartack couldn't get an argument.

Northern Dancer convinced his skeptics—and there were more of them than believers—in winning the Preakness Saturday by two and one-quarter lengths. Even Bill Shoemaker was convinced.

"The best horse won, that's all," admitted the Shoe, who had swapped horses a month before the Kentucky Derby. He gave up Northern Dancer for Hill Rise, on which he finished second in the Derby and third in the Preakness Saturday at Pimlico.

"You do what you think is right," said Shoemaker of his switch. "This time I was wrong. It won't be the last time."

Hank Moreno on The Scoundrel, who finished second, said his horse was still running strong at the finish and might have caught Northern Dancer if the Preakness had been longer than one and three-sixteenths miles.

To those still scratching for a reason to pick against Northern Dancer, Hartack warned, "I don't have any doubts about this horse going a mile and a half."

This was in reference to the distance of the Belmont June 6 at Aqueduct. Teh odds are 10 to 1 against Northern Dancer capturing that last leg of the triple crown for 3-year-olds. But that's right down his alley.

The bettors in both the Derby and Preakness sent the Canadian horse off second choice to Hill Rise. His backers profited at $8.80 in the Derby and $6.20 in the Preakness.

The Canadian pride of E. P. Taylor goes into the Belmont with 13 victories, the past seven in a row, in 16 starts. He already is more than halfway to being a millionaire.

Steve Owen Dies

ONEIDA, N.Y. (AP) — Steve Owen, 66, former coach of the National Football League New York Giants, died yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage. He joined the Giants in 1926, becoming head coach in 1931 and holding the post through the 1953 season. His team won eight Eastern Division championships, a league record.

Tie At Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A couple of veterans who haven't been in the winner's circle lately broke ahead of the pack today for the final 36 holes of the $40,000 Oklahoma City Open Golf Tournament.

Hucky George Bayer, who last won a tournament in March, 1960, and Lionel Hebert, whose last victory was two years ago, led at the halfway point with 36 hole totals of six-under-par 138. Both posted 70-68—138 cards during the first two rounds.

Rain and lightning spoiled the first two starts Thursday and Friday. The first round wasn't played until Saturday, necessitating a 36-hole windup today.

Johnny Potts and Mike Souchak were just one stroke behind the leaders at 139. Two strokes back were Bob Verwey and Jack McGowan. Favorite Arnold Palmer was deadlocked with four others at 141.

Cal Crew Triumphs

VALLEJO (UPI) — The undefeated University of California crew won its fifth straight race Saturday by rowing to a three and one-quarter length victory over the University of Southern California crew at the new 2,000 meter Vallejo course at Mare Island.

California's winning time on the trial course was 5:44.2.

San Franciscan Wins

TUCSON, Ariz. (UPI) — Steve Opperman, a 22-year-old San Franciscan, improved his chances for a future U.S. Walker Cup team selection yesterday by capturing the 62nd Western Amateur golf championship from a two-time winner of the tourney.

Opperman, runner-up in the 1963 National Public Links tourney and Northern California Amateur champ, defeated pre-tourney favorite Dr. Ed Updegraff of Tucson 3 and 2 in the final match.

Updegraff, who won the Western Amateur in 1957 and 1959, was tourney medalist with an 11-under-par 277 and Opperman was second best at 280.

Mill Valley Semi-Pros Drop Opener

Opening their 1964 season on an unhappy note, the Mill Valley Merchants semi-pro baseballers lost to the Pacifica Lions, 6-1, yesterday on the Project 17 diamond in Mill Valley.

Pacifica pitcher Len Dawson, a hurler for the San Jose State College baseballers, struck out 15 Merchants and allowed but five hits.

It was a pitchers' battle for the first eight innings as Merchant Keith Frazer had allowed only three hits. But with the score 2-1 going into the ninth, a rally sparked by a home run off the bat of Salen Ego stretched the lead to 6-1.

Sandy Slack led the M.V. batting attack with a triple and a single. Frazer allowed a total of six hits, struck out 12 and walked two.

LOUIS E. LOMAX
What of the Muslims?

Negro Author Lomax To Close College Series

Negro author Louis E. Lomax will speak on "The Black Muslim and the Negro Revolt" Friday at 8 p.m. in Olney Hall of College of Marin.

Lomax's talk will be the concluding program on the college's spring concert and lecture series. Admission is free. Doors will open at 7 p.m.

Lomax is the author of three books on the civil rights movement. They are "The Reluctant African," which won for him the Saturday Review Anisfield-Wolf award in 1960 for the book dealing "most creditably with social and group relations"; "The Negro Revolt," and "When the Word Is Given." The last is a report on the Black Muslim world and its leaders Elijah Muhammed and Malcolm X.

Lomax was born in Georgia in 1922. He attended Paine College and American University before joining the faculty of Georgia State College, where he was an assistant professor of philosophy. Now a free-lance writer, he has been a staff feature writer for the Chicago American, a television news writer, and has written frequent articles for national magazines.

Young Organist Will Give Recital In San Rafael

Russell W. Taylor, possibly Marin's youngest organist, will present an all Bach recital Sunday at 4 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael.

A senior at Marin Catholic High School, Russell is organist at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Mill Valley.

The young organist, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of Mill Valley, has played as soloist with the Marin Youth Orchestra and has been a Marin Music Chest scholarship winner.

His program Sunday will include the Chorale Prelude from the Great Eighteen, the Prelude and Fugue in B Minor, the Trio Sonata in C, No. 5, the Prelude and Fugue in G Major and four Chorales from the Orgelbuchlein.

The concert is pone to the public without charge.

Supervisors Meeting On Tax Relief For Aged

The Marin County Board of Supervisors tomorrow will hold a hearing on possible methods of providing tax relief to the aged in the county.

The board meeting will start at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center, but the tax discussion will not begin until 11 a.m.

The discussion was set up as a part of the board's program to relieve the burden of the property tax for local governments, especially the burden on those property owners living on fixed incomes.

The board will also receive reports from County Administrator Alan Bruce and Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell on the cost of meals given free to staff members at the juvenile hall.

Mitchell has revised his previous estimate of $12,600 a year, saying that the direct cost would be $8,259, but that indirect costs would push that up to about $10,500.

Mitchell also said the budgeted cost of meals has been figured too low in the past, citing Probation Officer Walter H. Busher's estimate of $6,500.

Bruce noted that 17 per cent of the total meals served at the hall are free ones for the staff. He said some of these people must eat with the detainees to maintain discipline and as part of the total program, unlike the situation in an adult penal institution.

But he added that one worker for each six children should be enough, and that other staff members should pay for the meals. Cooks and housekeepers engaged in food service should also be fed, he added.

Bruce will ask that $2,177.26 be taken from the reserves to pay the county's share in the cost of the latest litigation over the opening of the tunnel under Puerto Suello Hill by the Northwestern Pacific Railroad. The county's total cost so far has been $16,036.33, Bruce said.

The board members will receive copies of the recommended budget and a schedule of hearing times for department heads to appear before the board to discuss the budget. Hearings on the budget will begin June 17.

The administrator, in a report to the board, has recommended against the establishment of franchises for areas for ambulance services, saying that County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney questions whether the county has the authority and adding that open bidding would be necessary.

The board will receive a recommendation from Bruce that the function of public guardian be transferred from Public Defender Peter Allen Smith to Public Administrator Frank J. Keaton.

The directors of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District, in a letter to the board, say they are willing to go ahead with a forced assessment district for sewers in the Tamalpais Woods area, where an overflowing septic tank has been blamed for a case of infectious hepatitis.

But, the directors add, it will be October before work can start in the area.

The question of zoning to allow an apartment and townhouse development, to be called Lucas Green, to be developed just south of the Lucas Valley interchange west of Highway 101, will be heard. The Kaehler-Farrar Development Co. proposal has drawn fire from the county planning staff.

A letter from Maloney leaves doubt that the county, or any other public agency, can do much about the gardens being planted by residents in pole houses in Marin City, since there were no confining deed restrictions which applied when the houses were sold.

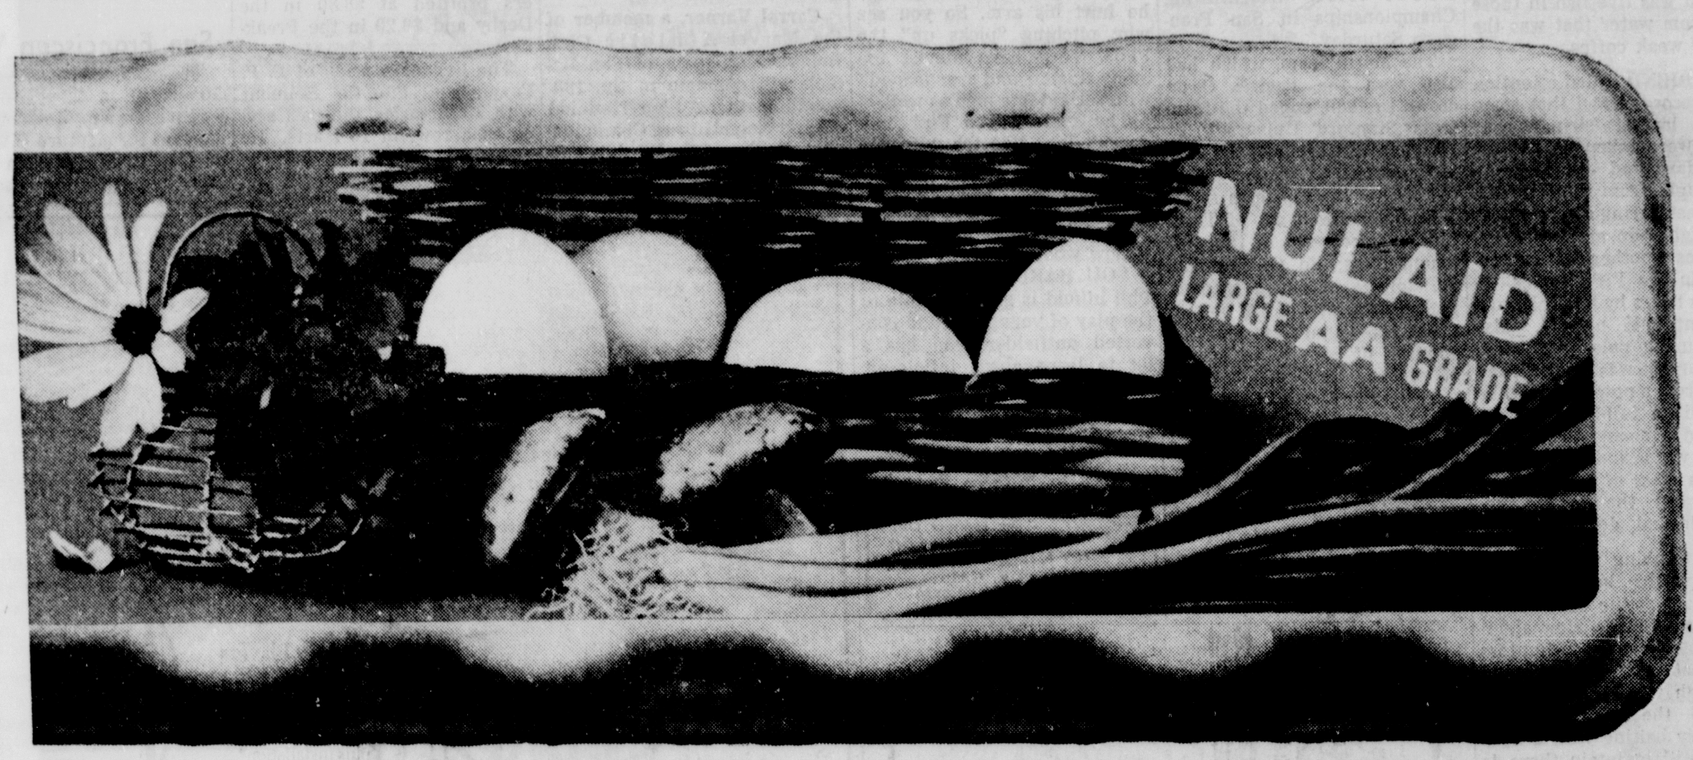

The county counsel said new controls could be applied to those houses not yet sold.

Drake Girl To Attend Journalism Workshop

Linda Siem, Drake High School junior, will attend a five-week journalism workshop at Northwestern University this summer.

The course, from June 28 to Aug. 1, will be attended by approximately 100 students from over the country. Linda is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Siem, 673 Cascade Drive, Fairfax.

BRIGHT
NEW CARTON

There's news in eggs these days—in Nulaid eggs, that is. The shapes are all the same; but the carton and the quality of the eggs are better than ever.

You see, the eggs in these bright Nulaid cartons are all from young layers. The hens, less than 18 months old, are raised on a special diet of quality controlled feed. Then, to insure freshness, Nulaid dates the young eggs at the time of grading and delivers them at once to your store in refrigerated trucks. In the store, the freshness dates are checked at regular intervals.

So no longer are all eggs the same. That's why we think you'll like Nulaid. They're the fresh young eggs from nearby California farms. Look for them in these bright new cartons.

Jean Annette Wilson To Be Bride In June

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Wilson of Corinthian Island announced the engagement of their daughter, Jean Annette, at a cocktail party, to Jon Alan Rolien, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rolien of Canby, Minn.

The future bride was graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended the University of Colorado. Jean recently returned from living in Hawaii for two years. Previous to that, she made two trips to Tahiti aboard the schooner "Wanderer".

She has two sisters, Patricia Wilson of Corinthian Island, and Mrs. Lloyd Adams of Los Angeles.

The future bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Hawaii and of Kerkhaven High School in Minnesota. He served as a pilot with the U.S. Navy. He has one sister, Mrs. John Cedergren of Minneapolis.

A Sabbatical For The Queen?

By JOSEPH GLADSTONE

LONDON (WPS)—"The queen is very fit," one of her aides told this correspondent after the announcement that her doctors had advised her to take things easy for a while, following the recent birth of her fourth child, Prince Edward. "This easing off is just common sense."

Many of the reporters who cover her majesty's multitudinous activities are not quite so confident about her health. It has been apparent for some time that the queen was finding her life a strain.

MANY BRITONS, including members of Parliament, are sufficiently concerned to be suggesting that perhaps prime minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home should firmly advise the queen to "take a real rest."

By this is meant that she should be allowed to get away completely from her royal duties for six months or even a year. It is proposed that in her absence a regent should act for her—either the queen mother or Princess Margaret.

THE SABBATICAL year is becoming increasingly popular with hard-working business tycoons. And the queen, most Britons agree, works harder than most if not all of them.

In the 10 years from her coronation until last fall when she withdrew from public life because of her pregnancy, the queen had traveled 140,000 miles overseas, visiting Commonwealth countries and 13 foreign lands. She had visited 210 places in the British Isles—visits often lasting two days or more and involving a dozen engagements. She had received 2,236 people in official audiences.

She had presided over 150 Privy Councils with her ministerial advisers, held 95 investitures for handing out titles and medals, 78 reviews of her Guards and other troops, and given 111 official dinners. She had attended 68 gala performances at the theater and visited 21 exhibitions.

FUN? Not when each activity must be accompanied by perpetual handshaking, smiles and speeches. The tasks are all the more exacting for Queen Elizabeth because she is not only conscientious about them, but also desperately shy—despite all the years she has been in the public eye. She is also conscientious about being a good wife, and a good mother to Charles, Anne, Andrew—and now Edward.

SHE CAN NEVER get entirely "away from it all." Hence the suggestions, now being heard, that she deserves and should take a good, long rest.

Entertainment Tips To Be Highlight Of Tea At Kent Estate

Keyed to the enlightenment of the Marin hostess, the Acacia Unit of the Marin Foundation will present an unusual "catering circus" and showing of hostess fashions in the setting of the home and gardens of the Roger Kent estate in Kent Woodlands on Monday.

At the 1 to 3 p.m. guests will be able to see a Belvedere catering firm's demonstration at many varied tables of ways to help the hostess to relax and enjoy her own party, with the themes "Showmanship at the Table" and "Entertainment Without Trauma."

During the gathering hostess-style fashions imported from Puerto Valarta will be shown by unit members with Mrs. Herbert Crocker as chairman of models.

Mrs. Kent will open her home as well as the grounds for the party, which will benefit the Foundation project—the residence for teen-age girls in San Rafael.

Following the catering demonstration guests will be served tea in the dining room opening off the terrace, where the table wil be decorated as a bridal table to demonstrate ways of entertaining at a weding reception.

Chairmen for the event are Mrs. Malcolm McVickar and Mrs. William Misakian, assisted by Mrs. Charles Rosenbaum and William G. Toland. They have included a variety of tables depicting a number of social situations, with professional caterers at each table to answer guests' questions and give tips on entertaining easily.

Mrs. Gordon Colberg of San Rafael is reservations chairman, assisted by Mrs. Gordon Zimmerman, and tickets will be available at the door.

Mrs. Jacob Lindenbaum is president of Marin Foundation (formerly Friends of Arequipa) and Mrs. John Buehler is chairman of the Acacia Unit.

LOS ANGELES RITE

Beverly Kent Trades Vows With Donald F. Schroeder

Wilshire Methodist Church in Los Angeles was the setting for the nuptials May 9 of Beverly Ann Kent and Donald F. Schroeder of Glendale. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A .Schroeder of Corte Madera.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley S. Briggs, wore a pink wool suit with matching accessories for the wedding. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Stephen Briggs, her sister-in-law, wore a deeper shade pink suit.

Lloyd Postel of Ross served the bridegroom as best man and Alfred Briggs of Los Angeles was the usher.

A reception followed at the Briggs home and the couple left on a wedding trip to Las Vegas. They will live in Hollywood.

The bride attended Hollywood High School and Wolfe's School of Design and is a fashion designer. The bridegroom was graduated from Tamalpais High School and College of Marin and is employed by an insurance firm in Los Angeles. Mrs. George R. Saxton of Kentfield is h sisister.

Butterfield-Pennell Nuptials

In a 4 o'clock ceremony on Saturday at St. John's Church in Ross, Sarah Patricia Pennell of San Francisco became the bride of Anthony Swindt Butterfield.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Parker Pennell of Manchester, Vt., and Naples, Fla.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white batiste banded with embroidery.

Lois Hansen of San Francisco as maid of honor wore a pink empire floor length gown.

Peter Butterfield of Jackson, Mich., was best man for his brother and ushers were Donald M. Teer Jr. of Los Altos and David Hess and Michael Briggs of San Francisco.

MRS. BUTTERFIELD

A reception followed the ceremony at the San Anselmo home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jay Sherman.

The bride was graduated from the Masters School in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., and Wheaton College, Norton, Mass. She is employed with Skidmore, Owings and Merrill in San Francisco.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Swindt Butterfield of Jackson and Macatawa, Mich., was graduated from Cranbrook Academy and Williams College. He is employed with Xerox Corp. in Mountain View.

TEA FOR PARENTS

Marin Chapter of National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation was host to mothers of cystic fibrosis afflicted children on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. James Zink in Greenbrae. The new officers were hostesses at the patio gathering. Here seated at tea table at left, pouring, are Mesdames Bruce E. Walker and Mrs. Harry W. Summers Jr. (Independent-Journal photo)

Equal Pay Law Goes Into Effect June 11

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—Come June 11 a federal law goes into effect which will affect a number of the 25 million women who hold jobs outside the home.

It's the equal pay for equal work law, compelling employers to boost lower wages to equal higher ones where sex-based differentials exist between men and women doing equal work.

WHAT WILL THE law mean to the feminine workers covered by it? Raises in some cases. Promotion opportunities in some instances. But at the same time, it may mean a lessening of job opportunities for women.

These are some of the expected results of the new law as found in a survey of 335 employers in all sections of the United States.

Many women's jobs and wages are in for a complete re-evaluation and revamping, the researchers found.

Companies' estimates of the number of jobs needing review ran anywhere from one to 20 per cent.

In some cases, companies expected as many as half of these jobs will need to be "restructured" in some way to erase existing inequities.

MOST COMPANIES said they would be hiking women's pay rates—or they'd transfer male employees to other jobs and in the future segregate male and female job classifications. No company reported plans to lower the classification pay structure.

An East Coast printing firm, for instance, said it originally had a five-cent (an hour) differential in starting rates, with the men earning more. But the firm now has made the starting wage the same in each job classification, upgrading the female pay rate to match the man's.

The researchers asked about possible bias in job-evaluation, especially since some companies traditionally give the men the so-called heavy work.

One public utility executive for instance said that women "are assigned as cashiers, clerks, stenographers, receptionists, key punch operators, accounting clerks and home economists. We don't let them near the electricity."

BUT A HOSPITAL personnel executive had different ideas; women aren't the weaker sex at all.

"We set up our salaries based on job duties," he said. "We'd be perfectly willing to hire a female plumber, engineer or carpenter if one applied and was qualified. In patient care, a qualified nurse or aide need not call a man to help her with even the heaviest patients. We don't differentiate on the sex basis."

THE SURVEY FOUND that in some cases the new law will lessen or limit job opportunities for women. Employers will segregate existing classifications wherever possible.

As one Virginia manufacturer said: "We're a new plant and have been expanding rapidly. We had planned to employ women in some of our light manufacturing jobs, but we decided against it because of anticipated complications arising from the equal pay law."

Similarly, an Ohio manufacturer said there would be a downgrading of some job classifications for women with higher level duties reassigned to men.

MANY EMPLOYERS, however, indicated a willingness to consider women for the high-level jobs. As one insurance executive wrote: ". . . We feel a job function, when properly evaluated, is worth so many dollars and cents to our organization. It can make little difference to us whether the employe is male or female."

As for advancement in an organization, the long-range effect may be an easing of promotional channels for qualified women, the survey found. It said government departments are leading the way in moving upward the deserving female worker.

Report Shows Half The Brides In California Are Teen-Agers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Half the brides in California are teen-agers and about one in six of all brides is expecting a baby, Gov. Brown's Advisory Committee on Children and Youth was told Friday.

The statistics came from Mrs. Jeanada Nolan, a committee member from Sacramento who has been looking into the incidence of teen marriages and child-bearing, both in and out of wedlock.

MRS. NOLAN, in charge of family life education for the Sacramento city schools, said, however, there is no percentage increase in teen-age pregnancy out of wedlock. She said there is an increase in the 20-to-30 year age group and that for the first time the supply of babies outstrips the demand for adoption.

Girls are maturing earlier, thereby increasing the need for sex education at home, in the schools, and at church, Mrs. Nolan told the committee, which met under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hubert Wyckoff, Watsonville. Asked if she favors sex education in the schools, Mrs. Nolan said there should be more of it.

AFTER HEARING Mrs. Nolan's report, the 44-member committee recommended that Governor Brown establish a study commission "to investigate all of the approaches regarding family life programs in the schools, including sex education of children and their parents."

The committee said that the commission should "investigate how, what, where, and who should teach sex education and family life" and make recommendations for legislation. The committee also advised the governor that "Those school districts that do not have family life and sex edducation courses should hasten to establish them" and that "all high school students who are married or pregnant should either be given counseling in the school or referred to a qualified agency."

THE COMMITTEE also suggested to Governor Brown that:

The Department of Education should develop a manual for teachers for family life education.

Doctors and lawyers should study and make recommendations "pertaining to the present laws involving statutory rape and other sexual behavior relating to minors."

Churches should provide more sex education.

Mrs. Ronald Lord Is New President Of Upsilon Unit

Mrs. Ronald C. Lord of Novato has been elected president of Upsilon Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Lord, who has served as publiciey, ways and means chairman, and Inter-City Council delegate, said the organization hopes to build up cultural and social interest and participate in service activities.

Projects planned for the year include a hot-dog booth at the Western Weekend, summer rush coffee, fall rush party and Valentine ball.

The new president's husband is district passenger manager of United States Lines. The Lords have two children, Sue-Ellyn, 8 and Grace, 4 years of age. Mrs. Lord includes bowling, camping and outings with the family, cooking, and collecting antiques as her favorite pastimes.

In the Novato Community Methodist Church, she has served as membership chairman, circle chairman with the Women's Society of Christian Service, and other committees and the Sunday School. The Lords came to Marin County five years ago from New York.

Mission Projects To Be On Program

A make believe tour of three national mission projects serving Spanish-speaking people will be presented at the United Presbyterian Women's meeting at the Novato Presbyterian Church at 9:30 a.m., Wednesday.

Chairmen of the tour areas will be Mrs. J. W. Aldridge and Mrs. Philip Dickinson, home of Neighborly Service, San Bernardino; Mrs. A. L. Zepp, Menaul School, Albuquerque and Mrs. C. M. Croughan, Sangre de Cristo Medical Unit, San Luis, Colo.

Poppy Days Set

Poppies will bloom in Marin May 28 and 29 when the American Legion Auxiliary stages its annual poppy sale. Proceeds from the sale go to rehabilitation, child welfare and education of needy veterans and dependents.

District Attorney To Address Zonta

The Zonta Club of Marin will meet Thursday at 8 p.m. at the home of Dorothy Kell, 77 Wolfe Grade, Kentfield, to hear District Attorney Bruce Bales speak on "What Is Law Day."

Retiring Educator Reviews Career

Harry G. Russell of San Anselmo, retiring in August after 41 years in public education, views his professional life as a study in contrasts.

The educator, with 40 of those years in the Tamalpais Union High School District, has come, he says:

"From impossible cow trails to super freeways, from provincial suspicion in Kansas to cosmopolitan sophistication of the Bay Area, from Stanley Steamers to Vanguard missles."

Harry Russell was the son of a circuit-riding preacher who lived in Kansas and rode and preached there, in Missouri and Oklahoma.

His boyhood, he recalls, was a "continuous round of activity." He worked in the orchards, picked strawberries, sawed firewood, trapped muskrats, skunks, and rabbits, and clerked in a country store.

And he also skated on the village pond, went bob sledding, caught catfish, and frolicked in the old swimming hole—sometimes with a sharp eye out for the constable.

Later, Russell was a constable of sorts himself, a pioneer attendance office for the Tam district.

And as a teen-ager he shocked wheat, milked cows, worked as a plumber's helper.

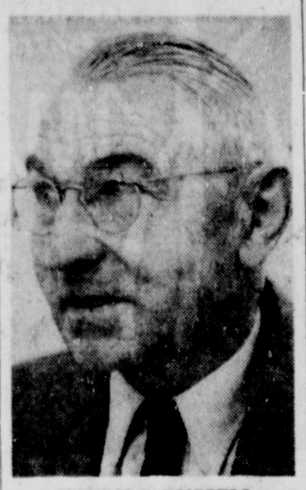

"We children born before the 1900s had little leisure time and little time to get into mischief," Russell says.

"Still," he adds with his distinctive twinkle, "we managed it occasionally."

There never was any question that he'd go to college. He entered Fairmount, now Wichita University.

Russell joined foursome of business majors. After two years at the Kansas college, the four friends came West, working their way to Berkeley and the University of California. There, too, Russell worked his way, taking on a variety of jobs.

He, and his friends — still close friends, two educators, one newspaper executive, one investment broker — returned to Kansas. Jobs in business were scarce. Russell decided to try teaching. He took a post as teacher-principal of a country school.

HARRY G. RUSSELL
Retiring In August

He only stayed there one year, returning to Berkeley to get a master's degree.

But that was a fruitful year. He was sold on education as a career. And he was sold on the primary teacher. He later married her.

After his graduate year, he went from St. Helena to Bakersfield, looking over the field. Of many offers, he selected Tam High. He was hired as attendance officer, sometimes called "hookey cop."

Like the constable of his childhood, he had a sharp eye. But, more important, a kind heart to go with it.

In his long career, Russell served also as teacher, dean of boys, school principal and, his current position,. principal of the district's summer and evening schools.

As dean of boys alone, he calculates, he has met and known 20,000 boys. As principal, still more. And he has counseled thousands of adults who wanted more education.

He thinks adult education is education's "last frontier."

"I'm going to miss all this fun," he says. "I would like to help with these exciting challenges." But he thinks he will be very busy in retirement.

"I have so many plans and ideas for retirement that I haven't sorted them out yet."

Office Trainees Complete Class

Fifteen adults will have completed 25 weeks of intensive secretarian and stenographic training at College of Marin Friday and will be available for jobs through the San Rafael office of the State Department of Employment.

The average age of the 14 women and one man is 35 and they are from 27 to 50 years old.

A majority of the group takes shorthand at 100 words per minute and types an average of 60 words per minute. Their instruction was modified to fit the needs of a small office, according to Robert Wilkins, one of their instructors.

The State Department of Employment determines the local employment need, screens the unemployed workers, pays allowances during training and places the trainees in jobs.

A second 25-week secretarial-stenographer course will start at the college June 1.

Wilson Scholarships Go To Four Marin Students

Four Marinites and a student at Dominican College, San Rafael, have been awarded Woodrow Wilson Fellowships for first year graduate study starting next fall.

The four from Marin County are Peter F. Stokely of 45 Marinita Avenue, San Rafael; John C. Chambers of 7 Turnagain Road, Kentfield; Joseph W. Esherick of Acorn Way, Kentfield, and Arthur J. Quinn of 2 East Street, San Rafael.

Stokely attends the University of California's Riverside campus. Chambers is at Princeton University, Esherick attends Harvard College and Quinn is enrolled at the University of San Francisco. All are seniors.

Also a recipient is Rita M. Beilharz of Los Gatos, a senior at Dominican College.

They are among 1,507 recipients from 357 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. The fellowship foundation is dedicated to "developing college teachers for tomorrow," according to its president, Sir Hugh Taylor.

Art Workshop Is Accredited

California College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland has accredited the workshop of Ida Dean Grae and Victor Ries for summer courses in weaving and metal work and jewelry. The artists have a studio in Mill Valley at 424 La Verne Avenue.

Qualified students, according to Mrs. Grae, a weaver, may register at the college and can earn as many upper division credits from the artists ts they put in hours for.

Thirty hours of work is required for each unit of upper division credit. Further information may be obtained from the college or from either artist. Ries gives courses in metalwork and jewelry as well as metal smithing.

NAVY GRAD — Walter Alfred Ericson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo A. Ericson of 49 Reservoir Road, San Rafael, will graduate from the Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md., June 3. A former San Rafael High student body president, Ericson has been assigned for duty aboard the destroyer Rowan after graduation.

Lunar spots described as the color of a gem ruby have been reported with increasing frequency in the past few years.

Tam To Host Career Day For South Marin Students

"Unlimited Horizons" will be the theme of the 1964 Southern Marin Career Day to be held at Tamalpais High School June 5 and 6.

All Southern Marin seventh graders through college aged students have been invited to attend the annual conference which will begin at 8 p.m. June 5 in the Ruby Scott auditorium, when information about various vocations will be presented.

Registration will be held at 9 a.m. June 6 after which six workshops will be offered. Participants will be able to attend three of the six sessions which are entitled Human Relations, Skilled and Semi-skilled Occupations, The Arts, Business and Industry, Science, and Conservation and Food Industry.

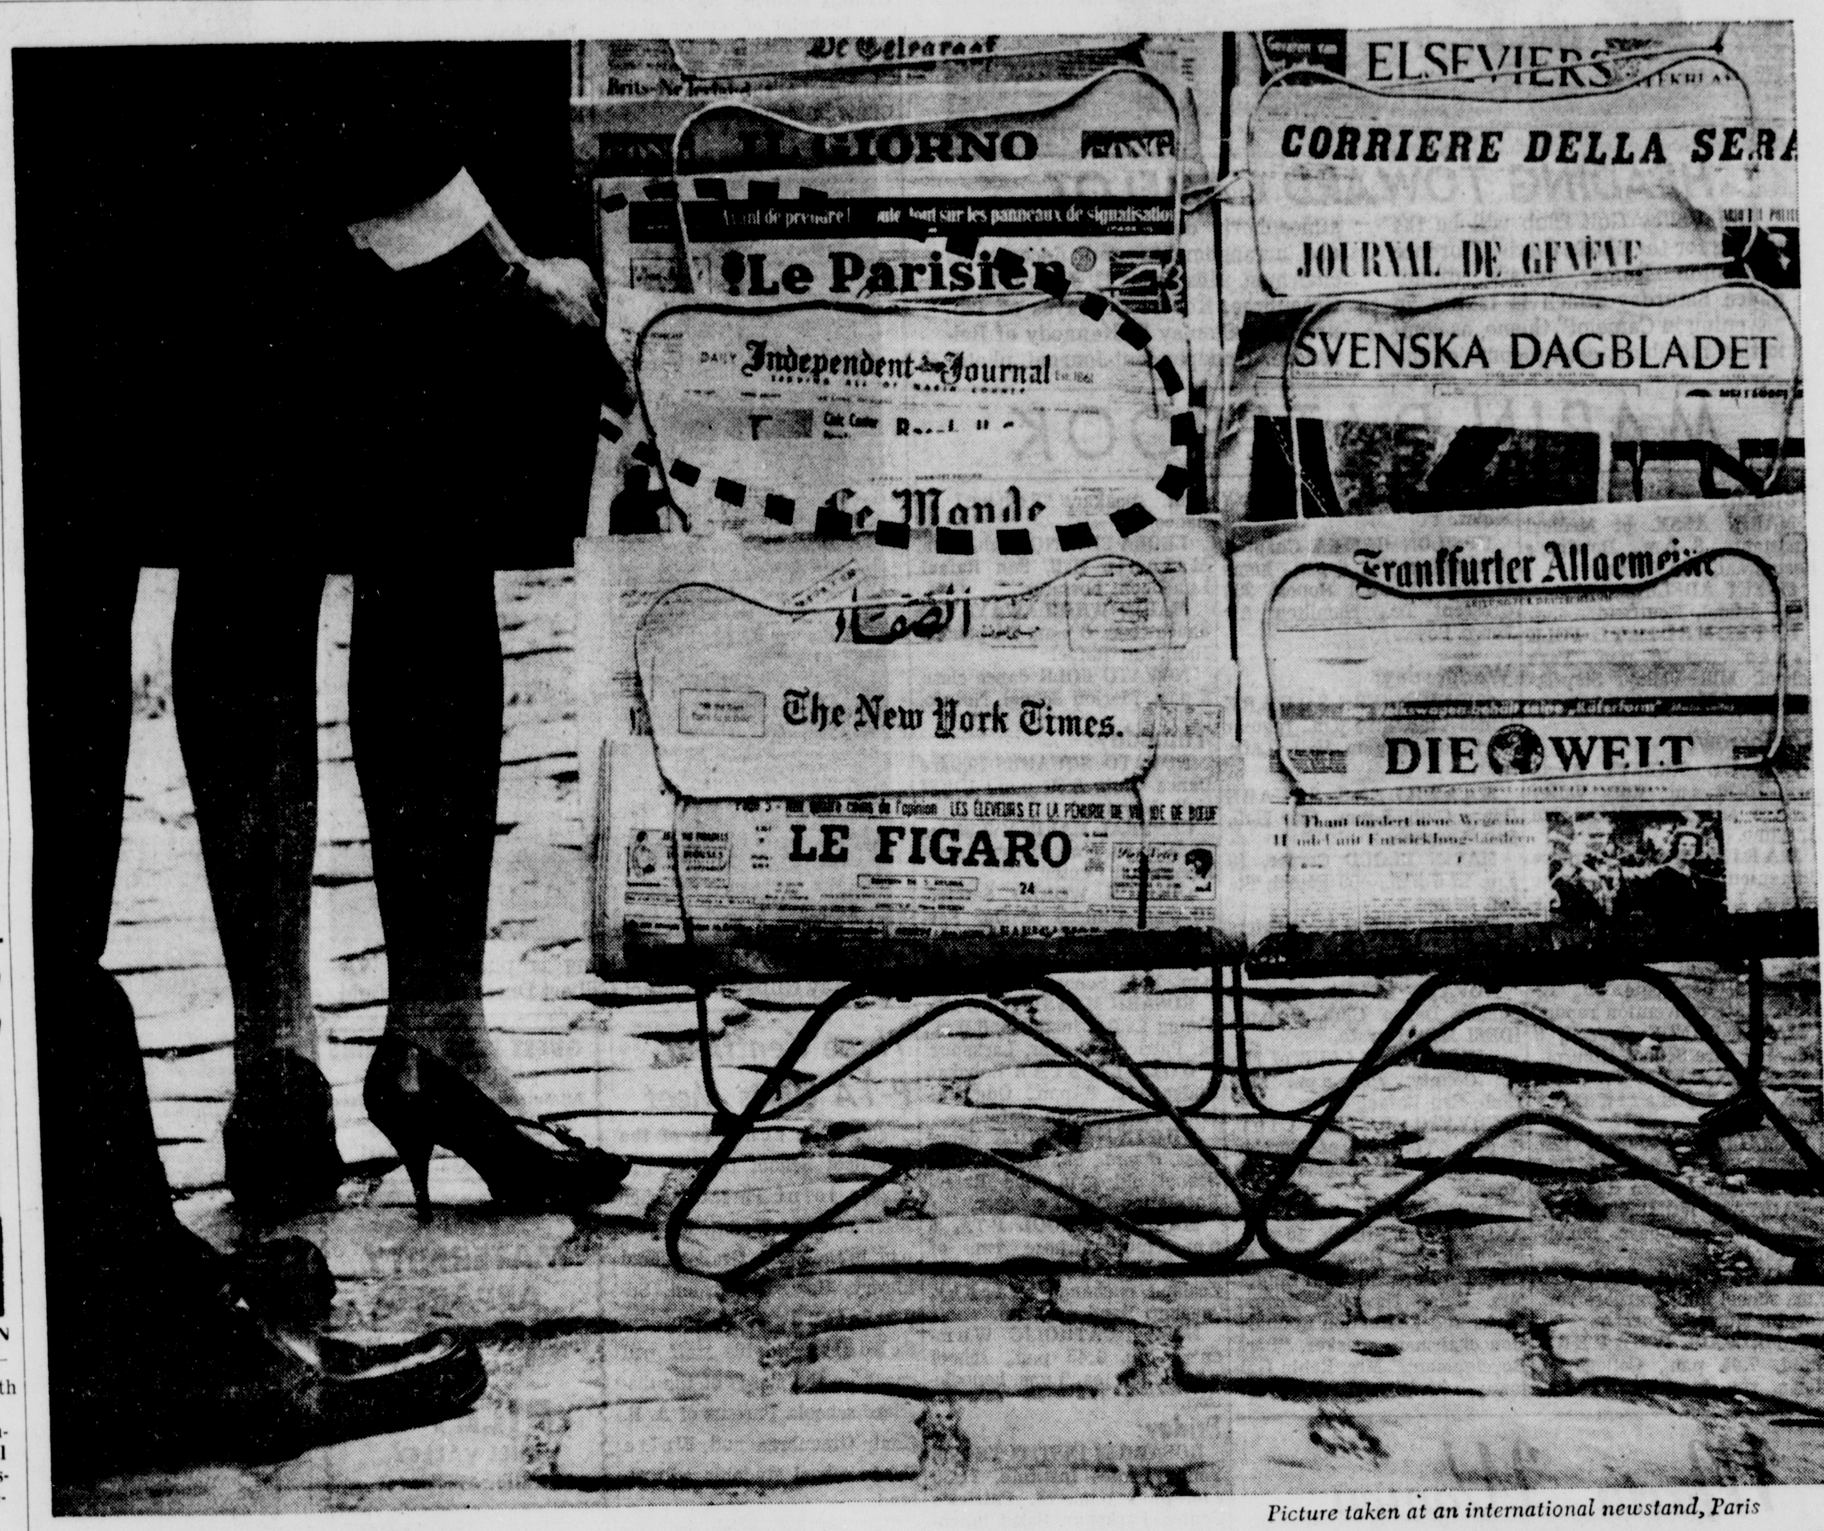

Co-sponsoring the career day are the California State Department of Employment, College of Marin, Tamalpais High School faculty, Mill Valley Rotary Club, Mill Valley Branch of the American Assn. of University Women, and the parent-teacher associations of Tamalpais High School and Richardson Bay and Edna Maguire elementary schools.

Coordinating the event is Jacqueline Myles Smith of the Marin Council of Community Services, Marin City Program. Chairman of the program committee is Charles Herndon, College of Marin counselor. Planning committee chairman is Rev. Samuel L. Banks of the Village Baptist Church in Marin City.

Piano Concert

Pianist Marjorie Kimball (Mrs. Cloyd Kimball of San Anselmo) will present a concert Sunday at 8 p.m. at the First Unitarian Church of San Francisco. She will play works by Bach, Beethoven, Brahms and Chopin.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Best Treatment For Heartburn Is To Eat, Drink Sensibly And Calm Down

VAN DELLEN

Indigestion is an all-inclusive term for symptoms such as belching, regurgitation (water brash), heartburn, nausea, and retching. Some persons also place coated tongue and bad breath in this category, even though the cause of these conditions is most likely to be found in the mouth.

Belching is normal during or soon after a meal. It represents regurgitation of swallowed air which forms a bubble in the top of the stomach. Explosive belching stems from the accumulation of excessive amounts of air and occurs more frequently in nervous individuals who gulp air (aerophagia) routinely. Swallowing cigarette smoke is another cause of belching. Many persons with this complaint become bloated or distended after eating because they take in air when attempting to burp or relieve indigestion.

HEARTBURN is associated with a reflux of the stomach contents into the lower esophagus (gullet). It is a sign of too much acid. On the contrary, the symptom has been reported in persons who are deficient in stomach acid. The symptom may result from irritation caused by swallowing hot liquids, strong liquor, orange juice, or concentrated sugars.

Eating too fast and drinking excessive amount of water distend the stomach and encourage the backflow. Water brash and regurgitation of fluid are somewhat similar except the taste may be sour, intensely bitter, or contain the flavor of recently ingested foods.

INDIGESTION is common among the tense, nervous, emotional, and overworked. Distress is not imaginary and usually comes from spasms, dysfunction of the gastrointestinal tract, or faulty eating habits. The "butterflies in the stomach" sensation many executives encounter during irksome periods is a variation of the same sensation. The best remedies as to calm down, eat and drink sensibly, and roll with the punches.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical tops if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

DON'T FORCE FOOD

Mrs. G. writes: My husband and I are fat, but our 6-year-old daughter won't eat well, saying she wants to remain slim and trim. Do you think she should be forced to eat more?

REPLY

No. She appears to have more sense than her parents. This story demonstrates how difficult it is for the children of obese individuals to avoid the same condition.

EFFECT OF STIMULANT

L.M.A. writes: Is amphetamine, taken over a long period, harmful to the liver, kidneys, heart, or brain?

REPLY

Small amounts do no harm but larger doses might damage the heart and brain. Nervousness, palpitation, loss of appetite(and irritability are the usual side effects.

RINGWORM

A. T. writes: What is trichophyton rubrum?

REPLY

An inflammatory type of ringworm of hands, feet, or nails. The usual ringworm treatments are recommended.

ALCOHOL AND EPILEPSY

M. M. writes: Is epilepsy due to drinking?

REPLY

No, but alcohol may aggravate the disease.

We'll take a stand with anyone on home news

We took this picture in Paris to make a point at home: no newspaper in the world covers Marin County the way we do in the I-J.

We stress the local touch . . . with events that touch you locally. Through the eyes and ears of I-J reporters we become an extension of you and of your right to know. We take you to schools, a PTA meeting, to a thousand events which shape your community—and your ideas—each day.

We race the clock (tomorrow it's a new world!) but mixed with ink is the final impress of responsibility: our job of keeping you alert to local issues, aware of merchandise and values, informed on public affairs.

That's why we'll take a stand with anyone on home news.

FOOT LOOSE
isn't it about time you moved up to a really luxurious 2-bdrm. apt. that's "typically Marin"? . . . enjoy the pleasant combination of warm sunny Marin weather and the cool waterfront breezes practically at your patio . . . enjoy private spaciousness, weather insulation and sound conditioning thruout your apt. . . . join in the pleasures of your own putting green, swimming pool, sauna bath and beautifully landscaped (maintained) gardens . . . now you can content yourself with the convenience of elevators, separate laundry rooms on each floor, fully equipped kitchens, wall-to-wall carpeting and full draperies.

FANCY FREE!
if you choose, we'll move you FREE by Republic Van & Storage . . . or perhaps — absolutely free — the best set of Wilson golf clubs that money can buy to give that putting green a workout), or a FREE portable GE TV set! We want you to be happy getting here . . . and staying here . . . whether you lease or buy, there's more square feet of quality and luxury for the same dollar spent here, than anywhere else in Marin . . .

LEGAL NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Trustees of the Marin Junior College District invites sealed bids for furnishing and installing LANGUAGE LABORATORY EQUIPMENT. Specifications, instructions, and bid forms are available at the Business Office, Sir Francis Drake and Maple Avenue, Kentfield, and will be mailed on request.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or a bid bond for ten per cent of the amount of the bid, made payable to the School District and will be received until 4:00 p.m., May 26, 1964, at which time they will be publicly opened in the Business Office, College of Marin, Kentfield, California.

The above-mentioned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract after being requested to do so by the Governing Board of the Marin Junior College District.

Notice is further given that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Trustees of the Marin Junior College District has ascertained the general prevailing rates of pay for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the work to be as follows: Carpenters $4.33 per hour, Electrical Workers $5.25 per hour.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids and/or waive any informality in any bid received. Unless otherwise specified by law, no bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the date set for the opening thereof.

By order of the Board of Trustees.

4-H Members To Present Guide Dogs

Three 4-H Club members from Oregon, who raised guide dogs, will present dogs to a graduating class at the Guide Dogs for the Blind, Los Ranchitos Road, at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

The dogs will be presented to Mrs. Nena Fitzgerald of Knights Ferry, Stanislaus County; Mrs. Eileen Hartman, Santa Barbara; Judge Paul K. Jackson, San Luis Obispo; Richard G. Ogden, Richfield, Utah; Dennis Roy, Encinitas, San Diego County; Richard A. Stein, Belleville, Ill, and Leroy J. Wainwright, Los Angeles.

State Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael will speak and Mrs. Lillymae Cominski of Santa Rosa will present an organ recital.

'Save The Park' Rally Has 5,000

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A rally in the polo grounds of Golden Gate Park to protest the state's plan to construct a tunneled freeway under a section of the park yesterday attracted 5,000 persons, according to police.

Spokesmen for the citizens committee to save Golden Gate Park insist the tunneling would destroy hundreds of trees but state officials have promised that only a few trees would be lost.

The crowds which fell far short of the anticipated 100,000, listened to several speeches against the freeway project and music by two jazz bands.

Former Marin Artist's Exhibit In San Anselmo

An exhibition of paintings by Gwen Zack of San Francisco, a former resident of Forest Knolls, will be on display at the Torrance Gallery at 128 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo, through June 21.

Her works have previously been shown in Mill Valley, Bolinas and San Francisco galleries.

Novato Recreation

A report on the year-around recreation program will be given by Edmund Mahany, Novato director of parks and recreation, to the city's parks and recreation advisory commission when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

Military Academy Will Present Play

The newly organized drama club of San Rafael Military Academy will present its first formal performances at 8 p.m. Friday and Sunday in the academy's auditorium.

Lead roles in the comedy "Out of the Frying Pan" by Francis Swann will be played by cadets Rick Lawton, Bill Langan and Ty Patterson.

Starring female parts will be played by Janet Oliver of Terra Linda High School, Peggy O'Mara of Marin Catholic High School and Sue Jackson of Redwood High School.

The academy's band will perform before the play begins and during intermissions.

Curriculum Report Due Tam High Board

A report on the activities of the Tamalpais High School District Curriculum Council during the school year will be given to the district board at its meeting today at 8 p.m. in the district offices.

The board is also scheduled to accept the deed to a lot in Belveron Gardens from Edward and Barbara Ryall for the site of the high school on the Tiburon Peninsula. This property is the last small parcel. Remaining are 51 acres of larger parcels now under consideration.

By 1850, large-scale iron casting permitted mass production of everything from eggbeaters to washing machines.

FIRST SOLO RECITAL—Young ja Shin will sing works of many celebrated composers at her first solo recital since arriving in San Rafael from Korea several months ago, to be held at 3 p.m. May 24 in Wesley Hall at the First Methodist Church, San Rafael. (Independent-Journal photo)

Korean Voice Student Faces Debut Recital

Young ja Shin, a Korean mezzo-soprano attending Dominican College in San Rafael, will give a recital in Wesley Hall at the First Methodist Church, 9 Ross Valley Drive, San Rafael, at 3 p.m. May 24.

Her first solo recital in Marin County will include works of Bach, Brahms, Scarlatti, Verdi and Stephen Foster. Her accompanist will be Sterling Rainey, choir director at the church.

Miss Shin lives at the home of Mrs. Nadean Chapman, 124 Linden Lane, San Rafael. The First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael is sponsoring her schooling here.

She attended Ewha Women's University, a Methodist school in Seoul, Korea, before coming to the United States last November to continue vocal studies with emphasis on opera.

Drake Coed Wins Top Honor In Regional Scholarship Event

Michele Slavich, a senior at Sir Francis Drake High School, has won one of two $500 Seymour Scholarship awards given each year to one boy and one girl from Northern California.

The awards, which are in honor of the founder of the California Scholarship Federation, Charles Seymour, are financed by the dues of C.S.F. members.

There are eight scholarship winners in California each year. Eligibility is based on grades, college board scores, an autobiography of the student, and an interview.

Michele is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Slavich of 56 Tamalpais Avenue, San Anselmo.

Millionth Blood Donor Expected

The millionth donor of blood to the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank is expected to give blood sometime this week at one of the four blood centers in California.

The centers are located in San Francisco, San Rafael, Redding and Vallejo.

Donations are taken Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the San Rafael center which is operated by the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank of the San Francisco Medical Society in cooperation with the Marin Medical Society.

Harp, Flute Concert Set In Mill Valley

Harpist Joel Andrews, who recently moved to Mill Valley, will present a concert with flutist Raymond Fabrizio on Sunday at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley.

It will start at 8 p.m. and will be in the format of the Candlelight Concerts with wine available and the audience seated at candlelit tables.

Andrews is first harpist with the San Francisco Ballet and the Oakland Symphony and has appeared with the Marin Symphony. He founded the first national harp festival in this country in which 50 harpists from all over the country participated.

Fabrizio has been soloist for the Carmel Bach Festival for four years and is solo flutist with the Monterey Symphony, the San Francisco Chamber Players and the Lyra Due, Trio and Ensemble. He has played with the San Francisco Symphony and Ballet.

Featured on Sunday's program will be Andrews' own composition, variations on the theme "Come Ye Sons of Art" by Purcell. Included will be works by Marcello, Rameau, Corelli, Ravel, Ibert, Salzedo and Villa-Lobos.

Marin Revue Cast Will Go On TV

The Marin Variety Theater Players will be presented on "Performance," on television station KQED, at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow, performing numbers from their revue, "This Must Be the Place."

The show was given last year at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley and at Sabella's Restaurant in Alto and the players plan to start rehearsals this summer for a new revue to be given this fall.

Those appearing in the show tomorrow are Lynne Luthi, Mary Diederich and Andra Enscoe in "Rummage," Dick and Carroll Dawe, Jane and Bernie Healey, Con Enscoe, Miriam Burdick, Don Michaelian and Cheryl Bock.

Terra Linda Teacher Going To Middle East

HUGH PENMAN
Study in Middle East

Hugh Penman, history teacher at Terra Linda High School, has been selected as one of 20 high school and junior college teachers in the United States to receive State Department grants for a summer of study in the Middle East.

Penman started last year to teach a course in Middle Eastern history at the high school and the course is already fully enrolled for next fall.

The grant is under the Fulbright-Hay Act. The money pays for an eight-week stay in the area, including six weeks at the American school at Beirut, Lebanon, and a tour of Syria, Jordan and Iraq.

Penman first became interested in the Middle East in 1955, when he spent a summer there. In college, his master's thesis dealt with the problem of Arab refugees in Palestine.

Penman will start the trip with a three-day orientation program in Washington, D.C., on June 28 before flying to Beirut.

Fairfax School Room Shortage Due Discussion

Fairfax School District trustees will seek a solution to the problem of a 1964-65 classroom shortage at a meeting at 7:45 p.m. tomorrow at Manor School.

Among the possibilities is the use of portable classrooms that could be financed with bond funds from 1956.

Dist. Homer Sisk will report on the effect that development of Oak Manor Highlands will have on future school needs.

The board also will discuss the 1964-65 district budget and hear a progress report on the summer school program.

Court Of Honor Set For Scouts

Court of Honor will be held by Boy Scout Troop 57 of San Rafael at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Boy Scout Hall, Second and A streets, San Rafael.

Eleven troop members will receive the first class rank and 12 boys will receive the second class rank.

The group is sponsored by the San Rafael Kiwanis Club and Pierce Reeves and John Stowers are scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster, respectively.

Airman Reassigned

Airman 3/c Steven C. Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Potter of 31 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera, has graduated from the training course for Air Force weapons mechanics at Lowry Air Force Base, Colo., and been assigned to the Schilling AFB, Kan.
